

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Sixth Sunday After Pentecost

July 1, 2018 – Choral Eucharist at 11:00am

"The Quilt of Belonging," 36 metres long collaborative textile art project whose 263 blocks portray the rich cultural legacies of all the First Peoples in Canada and every nation of the world. Artists from the Arctic Circle and coast to coast contributed to this quilt.

“Deep in our hearts there is a call to live in communion with others, a call to love, to create, to risk. But there is also that radical feeling of our poverty when faced with human misery. I am afraid to give myself. I have constructed a world of security around me...so many so-called interests which keep me from communing with others...I want to, but cannot. So many things seem to prevent me from loving and I feel them in my inmost being...so many defences and fears. I risk losing hope. I risk entering into a world of sadness and I begin to doubt myself. I have doubts about others. I doubt the value of my presence. I doubt everything.

This is our human condition. We want so much but we feel incapable. We believe in love but where is it? There are so many obstacles to break through within ourselves in order to become free and to become present to others; to their misery and to their person.

Our hope is to become freer each day in order to accept others, to be fully present to them. That is our hope. It is only in that way we will be able to give life. Come, Holy Spirit, give us hearts of peace and warmth which can serve as a refuge for those who suffer. Come, help us to be present one to another.”

— Jean Vanier, Eruption to Hope, 1973.

Hymn

Text: Richard Baxter; Music: John Darwall; Tune: Darwall

*Hymn text
below*

Hymn text Ye holy angels bright, who wait at God's right hand,
Or through the realms of light fly at your Lord's command, Assist our song, or else the theme too high doth seem for mortal tongue.

Ye blessèd souls at rest, who ran this earthly race,
And now, from sin released, behold your Saviour's face,
His praises sound, as in his sight
with sweet delight ye do abound.

Ye saints, who toil below, adore your heavenly King,
And onward as ye go some joyful anthem sing;
Take what he gives, and praise him still,
through good and ill, who ever lives!

My soul, bear thou thy part, triumph in God above,
And with a well-tuned heart sing thou the songs of love!
Let all thy days till life shall end,
whate'er he send, be filled with praise!

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie Eleison Please kneel, as you are able. Spatzenmesse – Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

All And peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly king, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

The First Reading

Please be seated.

Wisdom 1: 13-15, 2: 23-24

Reader Because God did not make death, he does not delight in the death of the living. For he created all things so that they might exist; the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them, and the dominion of Hades is not on earth. For righteousness is immortal. For God created us for incorruption, and made us in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his company experience it.

Reader The word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

Psalm Please remain seated. Psalm 30—Chant by C.H. Stewart and S.S. Wesley

Choir I will magnify thee, O LORD, for thou hast set me up, and not made my foes to triumph over me.
O LORD my God, I cried unto thee,
and thou hast healed me.
Thou, LORD, hast brought up my soul from hell:
thou hast kept my life from them that go down to the pit.
Sing praises unto the LORD, O ye saints of his;
and give thanks unto his holy Name.
For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye,
and in his favour is life;
heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.
As for me, in my prosperity I said, 'I shall never be moved';
thou, LORD, of thy goodness hadst made my hill so strong.
But thou didst turn thy face from me,
and I was troubled.
Then cried I unto thee, O LORD,
and gat me to my Lord right humbly:
'What profit is there in my blood,
when I go down to the pit?
Shall the dust give thanks unto thee?
or shall it declare thy truth?
Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me;
LORD, be thou my helper.'
Thou hast turned my heaviness into joy;
thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

That my soul may sing of thy praise without ceasing.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

The Second Reading

2 Corinthians 8: 7-15

Reader Now as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you – so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something – now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has – not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written, “The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.”

Reader The word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Mark 5: 21-43

Gospeller The Lord be with you. People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.” Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’ ” He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.” While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?” But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!” And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Homily

The Nicene Creed

Presider Let us confess our faith, as we say,
All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites us to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Presider Most merciful God,
All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Offertory Hymn

Text: Charles Wesley; Music: Thomas Haweis; Tune: Richmond

Hymn text on facing page

Hymn text O for a thousand tongues to sing
 my dear Redeemer's praise,
 The glories of my God and King,
 the triumphs of his grace!

Jesus—the Name that charms our fears,
 that bids our sorrows cease;
 'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
 'tis life, and health, and peace.

He speaks—and, listening to his voice,
 new life the dead receive,
 The mournful broken hearts rejoice,
 the humble poor believe.

Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
 your loosened tongues employ;
 Ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
 and leap, ye lame, for joy!

My gracious Master and my God,
 assist me to proclaim,
 To spread through all the earth abroad
 the honours of thy Name.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider God of wisdom, receive all we offer you this day. Enrich our lives with the gifts of your Spirit, that we may follow the way of our Lord Jesus Christ, and serve one another in freedom. We ask this in his name.

People Amen.

Thanksgiving & Consecration

Presider	The Lord be with you.	People	And also with you.
Presider	Lift up your hearts.	People	We lift them to the Lord.
Presider	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Presider	We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things.

By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature. He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you; and so he won for you a holy people. He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross, that he might shatter the chains of evil and death, and banish the darkness of sin and despair. By his resurrection he brings us into the light of your presence. Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Please kneel, as you are able.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Spatzenmesse – Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Choir Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth, Benedictus, qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

Presider Holy and gracious God, accept our praise, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying, “Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you.” In the same way he took the cup, saying, “This is my blood which is shed for you. When you do this, you do it in memory of me.”

Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church. Gather into one all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ. All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and for ever.

People Amen.
