

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Twenty-Second Sunday After Pentecost

October 21, 2018 - Twilight Recital at 4:00pm; Choral Evensong at 4:30pm

Georges Rouault. Ecce Homo, 1952. Oil on plywood.

And when Christ died on the cross, rejected, betrayed by those who stayed outside the circle of love, this mystery of divine, present, incarnate, active, transfiguring love, it is not just a question of the death of a friend and master; it is a far greater tragedy. If it were possible for Christ, with all that he represented, to die upon the cross, this meant that human hatred was stronger than divine love; human hatred had managed to repulse divine love, to banish him from the habitations of man, had rejected him and killed him on Calvary. And this death of divine love, this rejection, is accompanied by the loss, also, of the presence of eternal life in the midst of mankind: it has been cast out. Divine love, which had been offered to man in such a way as to be both a reproach and a great hope, this divine love is rejected, and without it, what remains to man? Just that which was always theirs, twilight in which to struggle, separated from Christ, a twilight consisting of a little affection, a little hatred, and plenty of indifference, a twilight in which men are strangers to one another, where relations are fragile, held together by ties that break repeatedly, by attachments that disengage and dissolve.

[Yet the grave is broken by] “Peace be unto you!” Christ brings them the peace which had been taken from them by his death... he gave his followers the peace which he had promised, that peace which only he could give... the peace of reintegration into life, beyond all doubt, beyond all hesitation- the certainty possessed by men who, because they are alive, cannot doubt Life, the life of the world to come, already come, by means of Christ’s Resurrection and the gift of the Holy Spirit.”

- Meditations on a Theme, Metropolitan Anthony of Sourozh, 1971.

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Psalm 116*Chants by Herbert Howells and Edward BairstowChoir*

My delight is in the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my prayer;
Because he hath inclined his ear unto me,
therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.
The cords of death compassed me round about,
and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.
I found trouble and heaviness,
and I called upon the Name of the LORD:
'O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.'
Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
yea, our God is merciful.
The LORD preserveth the simple:
I was in misery and he helped me.
Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul;
for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.
For thou hast delivered my soul from death,
mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.
I will walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.
I trusted even when I spake; but I was sore troubled:
I said in my haste, 'All men are liars.'
What reward shall I give unto the LORD for all the benefits that he hath done unto me?
I will take the cup of salvation,
and call upon the Name of the LORD.
I will pay my vows unto the LORD
in the presence of all his people.
Right dear in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.
Behold, O LORD, how that I am thy servant:
I am thy servant and the son of thy handmaid;
thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.
I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and will call upon the Name of the LORD.
I will pay my vows unto the LORD
in the presence of all his people;

Even in the courts of the LORD's house, and in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the LORD.

Psalm 117

Jeremiah 29: 1, 4-14

Reader

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let the prophets and the diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that they dream, for it is a lie that they are prophesying to you in my name; I did not send them, says the Lord. For thus says the Lord: Only when Babylon's seventy years are completed will I visit you, and I will fulfil to you my promise and bring you back to this place. For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me, says the Lord, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the Lord, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.

Reader Here endeth the first lesson.

Magnificat Please stand, as you are able.

Peter Aston in F

Choir My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson Please be seated.

Matthew 16: 13-28

Reader Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah. From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, 'God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.' Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? 'For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.'

Reader Here endeth the second lesson.

People Amen.
