

The Cathedral Church of St. James

Commemoration of the 67th Anniversary of
The Accession of Her Majesty The Queen

The Fourth Sunday After The Epiphany

February 3, 2019 - Twilight Recital at 4:00pm; Choral Evensong at 4:30pm

"The Shema" by Abraham Rattner, colour lithograph, from the series "In the Beginning," Plate IX, 1972.

Everyone should be eager to join the procession and to carry a light.

Our lighted candles are a sign of the divine splendor of the one who came to expel the dark shadows of evil and to make the whole universe radiant with the brilliance of his eternal light. Our candles also show how bright our souls should be when we go to meet Christ. So let us hasten to meet our God.

- St. Sophronius, 7th century.

Christ, whose glory fills the skies, Christ the true and only light,
Sun of righteousness, arise, triumph o'er the shades of night.

Dayspring from on high, be near, Daystar, in my heart appear.

- Charles Wesley, 1707 – 1788

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Information about Cathedral events, ministries announcements can be found at the back of this booklet after the service program.

Introit O Lord, Support Us

Eleanor Daley

Choir

O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the fever of life is over, and our work is done.

Then in thy mercy grant us safe lodging and a holy rest,
and peace at the last. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able, at the entrance of the choir and clergy.

The Royal Anthem

God save our gracious Queen, long live our noble Queen:

God save the Queen.

Send her victorious, happy and glorious, long to reign over us:

God save the Queen.

The National Anthem

O Canada! Our home and native land! True patriot love in all of us command. With glowing hearts we see thee rise, the true north strong and free! From far and wide, O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land, glorious and free! O Canada, we stand on guard for thee. O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

*O Canada! Terre de nos aïeux, ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux! Car ton bras sait porter l'épée, il sait porter la croix! Ton histoire est une épopée des plus

Psalm 20

Chant by Sir Percy Buck

Choir The LORD hear thee in the day of trouble;
the Name of the God of Jacob defend thee;
Send thee help from the sanctuary,
and strengthen thee out of Sion;
Remember all thy offerings,
and accept thy burnt sacrifice;
Grant thee thy heart's desire,
and fulfil all thy mind.
We will rejoice in thy salvation, and triumph in the Name of our God:
the LORD perform all thy petitions.
Now know I that the LORD helpeth his anointed,
and will hear him from his holy heaven,
even with the wholesome strength of his right hand.
Some put their trust in chariots, and some in horses;
but we will remember the Name of the LORD our God.
They are brought down, and fallen;
but we are risen and stand upright.
O LORD, save the king,
and mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Psalm 21: 1-7

Chant by Sir Walter Parratt

Choir The king shall rejoice in thy strength, O LORD;
exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.
Thou hast given him his heart's desire,
and hast not denied him the request of his lips.
For thou dost meet him with the blessings of goodness,
and settest a crown of pure gold upon his head.
He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it to him,
even length of days for evermore.
His honour is great in thy salvation;
glory and great worship dost thou lay upon him.
For thou dost give him everlasting felicity,
and makest him glad with the joy of thy countenance.
And why? because the king putteth his trust in the LORD;
and in the mercy of the Most High he shall not miscarry.
Please stand, as you are able.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

First Lesson Please be seated.

Proverbs 8: 1-16

Reader Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: 'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. O simple ones, learn prudence; acquire intelligence, you who lack it. Hear, for I will speak noble things, and from my lips will come what is right; for my mouth will utter truth; wickedness is an abomination to my lips. All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them. They are all straight to one who understands and right to those who find knowledge. Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold; for wisdom is better than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her. I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I attain knowledge and discretion. The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. I have good advice and sound wisdom; I have insight, I have strength. By me kings reign, and rulers decree what is just; by me rulers rule, and nobles, all who govern rightly.'

Reader Here endeth the first lesson.

Magnificat Please stand, as you are able. Herbert Murrill in E

Choir My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson Please be seated. Romans 13: 1-10

Reader Let every person be subject to the governing authorities; for there is no authority except from God, and those authorities that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgement. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive its approval; for it is God's servant for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid, for the authority does not bear the sword in vain! It is the servant of God to execute wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busy with this very thing. Pay to all what is due to them – taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honour to whom honour is due. Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet”; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, “Love your neighbour as yourself.” Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Reader Here endeth the second lesson.

Nunc Dimittis Please stand, as you are able.

Herbert Murrill in E

Choir Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles,
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Choir Amen.

Officiant O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

A Prayer of Saint John Chrysostom

Leader Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

People Amen.
