All the earth doth worship thee the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud the Heavens, and all the Powers therein.
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.”

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami / Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Information about Cathedral events, ministries announcements can be found at the back of this booklet after the service program.

Psalm 91

Chants by Henry Gauntlett, Eric O Ware and John Stainer

Choir Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the LORD, 'Thou art my refuge and my stronghold;
my God in whom I will trust.'

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter,
and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings,
 and thou shalt be safe under his feathers;
 his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.
 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night,
 nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness,
 nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday.
 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand;
 but it shall not come nigh thee.
 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold,
 and see the reward of the ungodly.
 Because thou hast said, 'The LORD is my refuge',
 and hast made the Most High thy habitation,
 There shall no evil happen unto thee,
 neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
 For he shall give his angels charge over thee,
 to keep thee in all thy ways.
 They shall bear thee in their hands,
 that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.
 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:
 the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under thy feet.
 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him;
 I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.
 He shall call upon me, and I will hear him:
 yea, I am with him in trouble;
 I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.
 With long life will I satisfy him,
 and show him my salvation.
Please stand, as you are able.
 Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
 As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
 world without end. Amen.

First Lesson Please be seated.

Daniel 12: 1-3

Reader At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Reader Here endeth the first lesson.

Magnificat Please stand, as you are able. Edmund Rubbra in A^b

Choir My soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson Please be seated. Revelation 5: 1-14

Reader Then I saw in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals; and I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?' And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it. Then one of the elders said to me, 'Do not weep. See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.'

Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne. When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. They sing a new song: 'You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation; you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth.'

Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!'

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, 'To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever!' And the four living creatures said, 'Amen!' And the elders fell down and worshipped.

Reader Here endeth the second lesson.

Nunc Dimittis Please stand, as you are able. Edmund Rubbra in A^b

Choir Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word. For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

The Collects

Officiant O everlasting God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order: Mercifully grant that, as thy holy Angels alway do thee service in heaven, so by thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end.

Choir Amen.

Officiant O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Anthem Lord Who Hast Made Us Text: Psalm 148; Music: Gustav Holst

Choir Lord, Who hast made us for thine own,
Hear as we sing before Thy throne, Alleluia.
Accept Thy children's rev'rent praise
For all Thy wondrous works and ways, Alleluia.
Waves, rolling in on ev'ry shore,
Pause at His footfall and adore, Alleluia.
Ye torrents rushing from the hills,
Bless Him Whose hand your fountains fill, Alleluia.
Earth, ever through the power divine,
Seedtime and harvest shall be thine, Alleluia.
Sweet flow'rs that perfume all the air,
Thank Him that He hath made you fair, Alleluia.
Burn, lamps of night, with constant flame,
Shine to the honor of His name, Alleluia.
Thou sun, whom all the lands obey,
Renew His praise from day to day, Alleluia.

Homily

An offering will now be taken for the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

A Prayer of Saint John Chrysostom

Leader Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

People Amen.

The Blessing

Officiant The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always.

People Amen.
