Count on God to come down on the side of justice.
Count on God to hear the ones who have no power, no influence, no voice.
Count on God to hear those who nowhere else to turn.
Count on God not always to grant your requests, but to hear,
with loving, parental patience the persistent prayers of your heart.

— John M. Buchanan, Feasting on the Word

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Information about Cathedral events, ministries announcements can be found at the back of this booklet after the service program.

Whose heart turned to hate his people,
and to deal deceitfully with his servants.
Then sent he Moses his servant,
and Aaron whom he had chosen.
And he showed his signs among them,
and wonders in the land of Ham.
He sent darkness and it was dark;
and they were not obedient unto his word.
He turned their waters into blood,
and slew their fish.
Their land brought forth frogs,
yea, even in their kings' chambers.
He spake the word and there came all manner of flies,
and lice in all their quarters.
He gave them hail-stones for rain,
and flames of fire in their land.
He smote their vines also and fig-trees,
and destroyed the trees that were in their borders.
He spake the word and the locusts came,
and caterpillars innumerable;
And did eat up all the grass in their land,
and devoured the fruit of their ground.
He smote all the first-born in their land,
even the chief of all their strength.
But he brought forth his own people with silver and gold;
and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
Egypt was glad at their departing,
for they were afraid of them.
He spread out a cloud to be a covering,
and fire to give light in the night-season.
At their desire he brought quails,
and filled them with the bread of heaven.
He opened the rock of stone, and the waters flowed out,
so that rivers ran in the dry places.
For why? he remembered his holy promise,
and Abraham his servant.
And he brought forth his people with joy,
and his chosen with gladness;

And gave them the lands of the nations,
and they took the labours of the peoples in possession;
That they might keep his statutes,
and observe his laws.

Please stand, as you are able.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Sirach 4: 1-10

Reader

My child, do not cheat the poor of their living, and do not keep needy eyes waiting. Do not grieve the hungry, or anger one in need. Do not add to the troubles of the desperate, or delay giving to the needy. Do not reject a suppliant in distress, or turn your face away from the poor. Do not avert your eye from the needy, and give no one reason to curse you; for if in bitterness of soul some should curse you, their Creator will hear their prayer. Endear yourself to the congregation; bow your head low to the great. Give a hearing to the poor, and return their greeting politely. Rescue the oppressed from the oppressor; and do not be hesitant in giving a verdict. Be a father to orphans, and be like a husband to their mother; you will then be like a son of the Most High, and he will love you more than does your mother.

Magnificat

Westminster Service – Herbert Howells

Choir

My soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Luke 10: 1-12, 17-20

Reader

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

Choir Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles,
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Anthem

God And The Universe

Charles Villiers Stanford

Choir

Will my tiny spark of being wholly vanish in your deeps and heights?
Must my days be dark by reason,
O ye Heavens, of your boundless nights,
Rush of Suns, and roll of systems, and your fiery clash of meteorites?
"Spirit, nearing yon dark portal at the limit of thy human state,
Fear not thou the hidden purpose of that Power which alone is great,
Nor the myriad world, His shadow, nor the silent Opener of the Gate."

Homily

An offering will now be taken for the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Please stand, as you are able.

Hymn at the Collection

Text: Ray Palmer; Music: Melody from J. Crüger's Praxis Pietatis Melica, 1647; Tune: Nun Danket All

*Hymn text

facing page*

Hymn text

Jesus, these eyes have never seen that radiant form of thine;
the veil of sense hangs dark between thy blessed face and mine.
I see thee not, I hear thee not, yet art thou oft with me;
and earth hath ne'er so dear a spot as where I met with thee.
Yet, though I have not seen, and still must rest in faith alone,
I love thee, dearest Lord, and will, unseen, but not unknown.

Hymn text When death these mortal eyes shall seal, and still this throbbing heart, cont'd the rending veil shall thee reveal all glorious as thou art.

Prayers

Please kneel, as you are able.

A Prayer of Saint John Chrysostom

Leader Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

People Amen.

The Blessing

Officiant The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always.

People Amen.
