

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

October 27, 2019 - Twilight Recital at 4:00pm; Choral Evensong at 4:30pm

Duality, Leora Effinger-Weintraub

“To be human is to live by sunlight and moonlight, with anxiety and delight, admitting limits and transcending them, falling down and rising up. To want a life with only half of these things in it is to want half a life, shutting the other half away where it will not interfere with one’s bright fantasies of the way things ought to be.”

- Learning to Walk in the Dark, Barbara Brown Taylor

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Information about Cathedral events, ministries announcements can be found at the back of this booklet after the service program.

Introit

Before The Ending Of The Day

Plainsong

Choir

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray, that with thy wonted favour thou wouldst be our guard and keeper now.

From all ill dreams defend our eyes,
from nightly fears and fantasies;
tread under foot our ghostly foe,
that no pollution we may know.

O Father, that we ask be done,
through Jesus Christ thine only Son,
who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able, when the organ plays.

Psalm 18, Part 1

Choir

I love thee, O LORD, my strength.

The LORD is my stony rock, my defence, and my Saviour;
My God, and my might, in whom I will trust;

my shield, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge.

I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;

so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

The waves of death compassed me,

and the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

The cords of hell came about me;

the snares of death overtook me.

In my trouble I called upon the LORD, and complained unto my God.

So he heard my voice out of his holy temple,

and my complaint before him entered into his ears.

The earth trembled and quaked;

the very foundations also of the hills shook,

and were moved, because he was wroth.

There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,

and a consuming fire out of his mouth,

so that coals were kindled at it.

He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and it was dark under his feet.

He rode upon the cherubim and did fly;

he came flying upon the wings of the wind.

He made darkness his secret place, and his pavilion round about him, with dark water and thick clouds to cover him.

At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed;

hail-stones and coals of fire.

The LORD also thundered out of heaven,

and the Highest uttered his voice;

hail-stones and coals of fire.

He sent out his arrows, and scattered them;

he cast forth his lightnings, and destroyed them.

The springs of waters were seen,

and the foundations of the round world were uncovered,

At thy chiding, O LORD,

at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

He sent from on high, and took me,
and he drew me out of many waters.
He delivered me from my strongest enemy,
and from them that hate me, for they were too mighty for me.
They came upon me in the day of my trouble;
but the LORD was my upholder.
He brought me forth also into a place of liberty;
he delivered me, even because he had a favour unto me.
The LORD rewarded me after my righteous dealing;
according to the cleanness of my hands did he recompense me.
Because I have kept the ways of the LORD,
and have not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.
For I had an eye unto all his laws,
and did not cast out his commandments from me.
I was also uncorrupt before him,
and kept myself from mine own wickedness.
Therefore the LORD rewarded me after my righteous dealing,
and according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
With the merciful thou shalt show thyself merciful;
and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.
With the pure thou shalt show thyself pure;
and with the perverse thou shalt deal accordingly.
For thou shalt save the people that are lowly,
and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.
Thou also shalt light my candle;
the LORD my God shall make my darkness to be light.
For in thee I can discomfit an host of men,
and with the help of my God I can leap over the wall.
The way of God is an undefiled way:
the word of the LORD also is tried in the fire;
he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

Please stand, as you are able.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

First Lesson*Please be seated.Sirach 18: 19-33Reader*

Before you speak, learn; and before you fall ill, take care of your health. Before judgement comes, examine yourself; and at the time of scrutiny you will find forgiveness. Before falling ill, humble yourself; and when you have sinned, repent. Let nothing hinder you from paying a vow promptly, and do not wait until death to be released from it. Before making a vow, prepare yourself; do not be like one who puts the Lord to the test. Think of his wrath on the day of death, and of the moment of vengeance when he turns away his face. In the time of plenty think of the time of hunger; in days of wealth think of poverty and need. From morning to evening conditions change; all things move swiftly before the Lord. One who is wise is cautious in everything; when sin is all around, one guards against wrongdoing. Every intelligent person knows wisdom, and praises one who finds her. Those who are skilled in words become wise themselves, and pour forth apt proverbs. Do not follow your base desires, but restrain your appetites. If you allow your soul to take pleasure in base desire, it will make you the laughing-stock of your enemies. Do not revel in great luxury, or you may become impoverished by its expense. Do not become a beggar by feasting with borrowed money when you have nothing in your purse.

Magnificat*Please stand, as you are able.Healey Willan in EbChoir*

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Luke 10: 25-37

Reader

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.' But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Anthem Never Weather-Beaten Sail

Charles Wood

Choir Never weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore.
Never tired pilgrim's limbs affected slumber more,
Than my wearied sprite now longs to fly out of my troubled breast:
O come quickly, sweetest Lord, and take my soul to rest.
Ever blooming are the joys of Heaven's high Paradise.
Cold age deafs not there our ears nor vapour dims our eyes:
Glory there the sun outshines whose beams the blessed only see:
O come quickly, glorious Lord, and raise my sprite to thee!

Homily

An offering will now be taken for the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Text: Paul Gerhardt; tr. David Frederick Ruddell Wilson; Music: Ascribed to Heinrich Isaac;
adapted and harmonized by J.S. Bach; Tune: Innsbrück

below*

The image shows a musical score for a hymn, consisting of four systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The music is written in a style characteristic of J.S. Bach's harmonization of older hymns. The final system ends with the text "A - men." written above the notes.

Hymn text

The day hath now an ending, O Light, all light transcending,
Be with us as we pray; O stay thou close beside us,
Jesus, our Saviour, hide us, until earth's shadows flee away.

And then, for those, our nearest, our friends belov'd and dearest,
God keep you in his sight! His angel-guards attend you,
His sheltering arms defend you, till morning breaks with golden light.

Prayers

Please kneel, as you are able.

A Prayer of Saint John Chrysostom

Leader Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

People Amen.

Officiant The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always.

People Amen.
