

The Cathedral Church of St. James

Christmas Eve

Tuesday December 24, 2019 –

Choral Eucharist and Procession to the Crèche at 7:30pm

Annunciation to the Shepherds - Heinrich Vogeler, 1872-1942

More than a babe transfixed in time
the child lives – in love and mirth;
the smallest act of tenderness celebrates his birth.

- Laura Lake

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

A WARM WELCOME AND MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

Gloria

New English Folk Mass

Presider Glory to God in the highest,

All And peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly king, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Please remain standing.

Eternal God, this holy night is radiant with the brilliance of your one true light. As we have known the revelation of that light on earth, bring us to see the splendour of your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Isaiah 9: 2-7

Reader The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness – on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader The word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

Psalm Please remain seated. Psalm 96 - Chant by Charles Harford Lloyd

Choir O sing unto the LORD a new song;
sing unto the LORD, all the whole earth.
Sing unto the LORD, and praise his Name;
be telling of his salvation from day to day.
Declare his honour among the nations,
and his wonders among all peoples.
For the LORD is great, and cannot worthily be praised;
he is more to be feared than all gods.
As for all the gods of the peoples, they are but idols;
but it is the LORD that made the heavens.
Honour and majesty are before him:
strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
Ascribe unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the peoples, ascribe unto the LORD glory and power.
Give unto the LORD the honour due unto his Name;
bring presents and come into his courts.
O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness;
let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

Tell it out among the nations that the LORD is King;
 he hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moved;
 he shall judge the peoples righteously.
 Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad;
 let the sea make a noise, and all that is therein.
 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it;
 then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the LORD;
 For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth,
 and with righteousness to judge the world,
 and the peoples with his truth.

The Second Reading

Titus 2: 11-14

Reader For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Reader The word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 2: 1-20

Gospeller The Lord be with you. People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid; for see – I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.' And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favours!' When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.' So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ. People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Nicene Creed

Please stand, as you are able.

Presider Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hymn

Text: Nahum Tate; Music: Est's Psalms, 1592; Tune: Winchester Old

During the singing of this hymn, children and their families make their way to the crèche.

*Hymn text
below*

Hymn text While shepherds watched their flocks by night all seated on the ground, the angel of the Lord came down and glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he, for mighty dread had seized their troubled mind.

"Glad tidings of great joy I bring to you and humankind.

To you in David's town this day is born of David's line
a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord; and this shall be the sign:

the heavenly babe you there shall find to human view displayed, all meanly wrapped in swaddling bands, and in a manger laid."

Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith appeared a shining throng of angels praising God, who thus addressed their joyful song:

"All glory be to God on high, and to the world be peace;
good will henceforth from heaven and earth begin, and never cease."

Children's Talk & Prayers at the Crèche

Vicar On this Holy Night, let us pray for the Church and the world.

Intercessor God, in your mercy;

People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers:

Presider Holy Child of Bethlehem, we come to adore you, born in humility and laid in a manger. Give us open hearts to receive you still, and let the light of your love always shine within us, for you are alive and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People Amen.

Hymn

Text: Anon.; Music: Melody W.J. Kirkpatrick;
arr. R. Vaughan Williams; Tune: Cradle Song

During the singing of this hymn, children & their families and the chancel party return to their seats.

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the Baby awakes, but little Lord Jesus no crying he makes.
I love thee, Lord Jesus; look down from the sky,
And stay by my bedside till morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask thee to stay close by me for ever, and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care,
And fit us for heaven, to live with thee there.

The Peace

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken for the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Text & Music: Traditional English Carol, 17th cent.; Tune: The First Nowell

The first nowell, the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay, in fields where they lay keeping their sheep
on a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell, born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star, shining in the east, beyond them far;
and to the earth it gave great light,
and so it continued both day and night.
Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell, born is the King of Israel.

And by the light of that same star three wise men came from country far;
to seek for a king was their intent,
and to follow the star wherever it went.
Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell, born is the King of Israel.

Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord, who has made heaven and earth of nought,
and with his blood salvation bought.
Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell, born is the King of Israel.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Please assume a posture of prayer that is appropriate – stand, sit or kneel.

Presider Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life: Blessed are you for the birth of creation. Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light. Blessed are you for your promise to your people. Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams. Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will. Blessed are you for your Son Jesus, the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider With this bread and cup we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth. We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection. We look with hope for his coming.

All praise and glory are yours, Holy One of Israel, Word of God incarnate, Power of the Most High, one God, now and forever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Motet The Little Road To Bethlehem

Text: Margaret Rose; Music: Michael Head

Choir

As I walked down the road at set of sun,
 The lambs were coming homeward one by one.
 I heard a sheepbell softly calling them,
 Along the little road to Bethlehem

Beside an open door as I drew nigh,
 I heard sweet Mary sing a lullaby.
 She sang about the lambs at close of day,
 And rocked her tiny King among the hay.

Across the air the silver sheepbells rang.
 "The lambs are coming home," sweet Mary sang.
 "Your star of gold, your star of gold is shining in the sky.
 So sleep, my little King, go lullaby."

As I walked down the road at set of sun,
 The lambs were coming homeward one by one.
 I heard a sheepbell softly calling them,
 Along the little road to Bethlehem.

Motet The Crown Of Roses

Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky

Choir

When Jesus Christ was yet a child
He had a garden small and wild,
Wherein He cherished roses fair,
And wove them into garlands there.

Now once, as summer time drew nigh,
There came a troop of children by,
And seeing roses on the tree,
With shouts they plucked them merrily.

Do you bind roses in your hair?
They cried, in scorn, to Jesus there,
The Boy said humbly: "Take, I pray,
All but the naked thorns away."

Then of the thorns they made a crown,
And with rough fingers pressed it down,
Till on His forehead fair and young,
Red drops of blood like roses sprung.

Hymn

Text: Charles Wesley; Music: Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy; adapt. William Hayman Cummings; Tune: Mendelssohn

Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn King, peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled."
Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
with th'angelic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn King."

Christ, by highest heaven adored; Christ, the everlasting Lord;
late in time behold him come, offspring of a Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see; hail the incarnate deity, pleased as one of us to dwell, Jesus, our Emmanuel.
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn King."

Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings, risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die, born to raise each child of earth, born to give us second birth.
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn King."
