The Days Are Surely Coming - Mike Moyers

Empower me
To be a bold participant, rather than a timid saint in waiting,
in the difficult ordinariness of now;
to exercise the authority of honesty;
rather than to defer to power
or deceive to get it;
to influence someone for justice,
rather than impress anyone for gain;
and, by grace to find treasures of joy, of friendship, or peace hidden in the fields of the daily you give me to plow.

– Ted Loder

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Information about Cathedral events, ministries announcements can be found at the back of this booklet after the service program.

What Cheer

William Walton

Choir

What cheer? Good cheer! Be merry and glad this good New Year!
'Lift up your hearts and be glad in Christ's birth', the angel bade, Say each to other, if any be sad: 'What cheer!'

Now the King of heav'n his birth hath take,
Joy and mirth we ought to make:
Say each to other, for this sake: 'What cheer?'

I tell you all with heart so free: Right welcome ye be to me;
Be glad and merry for charity! What cheer? Good cheer!
What cheer? Good cheer! Be merry and glad this good New Year!

Please stand, as you are able, when the organ plays.

Psalm 65*Chants by W. Harris, C.H. Lloyd and G. BennettChoir*

Praise is due to thee, O God, in Sion;
and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.
Thou that hearest the prayer,
unto thee shall all flesh come.
My misdeeds prevail against me:
O be thou merciful unto our sins.
Blessed is the man whom thou choolest and receivest,
that he may dwell in thy courts.
We shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house,
even of thy holy temple.
Thou shalt show us wonderful things in thy righteousness,
O God of our salvation,
thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth,
and of them that remain in the broad sea;
Who in his strength setteth fast the mountains,
and is girded about with power;
Who stilleth the raging of the seas,
the roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.
They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth
are afraid at thy tokens, thou that makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise thee.
Thou visitest the earth and waterest it:
thou makest it very plenteous.
The river of God is full of water:
thou preparest their grain, for so thou providest for the earth.
Thou waterest her furrows, smoothing the ridges thereof:
thou makest it soft with the drops of rain,
and blessest the increase of it.
Thou crownest the year with thy goodness;
and thy paths drip with fatness.
The pastures of the wilderness drip;
and the little hills rejoice on every side.
The pastures are clothed with flocks:
the valleys also stand so thick with grain that they laugh and sing.

Psalm 67

Choir

God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
and show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;
That thy way may be known upon earth,
thy saving health among all nations.
Let the people praise thee, O God;
yea, let all the people praise thee.
O let the nations rejoice and be glad;
for thou shalt judge the folk righteously,
and govern the nations upon earth.
Let the people praise thee, O God;
yea, let all the people praise thee.
The earth hath brought forth her increase;
and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.
God shall bless us;
and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Please stand, as you are able.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Isaiah 47: 1-15

Reader

Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter Babylon! Sit on the ground without a throne, daughter Chaldea! For you shall no more be called tender and delicate. Take the millstones and grind meal, remove your veil, strip off your robe, uncover your legs, pass through the rivers. Your nakedness shall be uncovered, and your shame shall be seen. I will take vengeance, and I will spare no one. Our Redeemer—the Lord of hosts is his name—is the Holy One of Israel.

Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter Chaldea! For you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms. I was angry with my people, I profaned my heritage; I gave them into your hand, you showed them no mercy; on the aged you made your yoke exceedingly heavy. You said, 'I shall be mistress for ever', so that you did not lay these things to heart or remember their end. Now therefore hear this, you lover of pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one besides me; I shall not sit as a widow or know the loss of children'—both these things shall come upon you in a moment, in one day: the loss of children and widowhood shall come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and the great power of your enchantments.

You felt secure in your wickedness; you said, 'No one sees me.' Your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray, and you said in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one besides me.' But evil shall come upon you, which you cannot charm away; disaster shall fall upon you, which you will not be able to ward off; and ruin shall come on you suddenly, of which you know nothing.

Stand fast in your enchantments and your many sorceries, with which you have laboured from your youth; perhaps you may be able to succeed, perhaps you may inspire terror. You are wearied with your many consultations; let those who study the heavens stand up and save you, those who gaze at the stars and at each new moon predict what shall befall you.

See, they are like stubble, the fire consumes them; they cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame. No coal for warming oneself is this, no fire to sit before! Such to you are those with whom you have laboured, who have trafficked with you from your youth; they all wander about in their own paths; there is no one to save you.

Reader Here endeth the first lesson.

Magnificat Please stand, as you are able. Fauxbourdons Service – Matthew Larkin

Choir My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson

Mark 7: 31-37

Reader Then Jesus returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, ‘Ephphatha’, that is, ‘Be opened.’ And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, ‘He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.’

Reader Here endeth the second lesson.

Choir Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace,
according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Choir Amen.

Officiant Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Anthem Surge, Illuminare

Kevin Siegfried

Choir Surge, illuminare, Jerusalem, quia venit lumen tuum, et gloria Domini super te orta est. Vidimus stellam ejus in Oriente, et venimus cum muneribus adorare Dominum. Venit lumen tuum, Jerusalem, et gloria Domini super te orta est; et ambulabunt gentes in lumine tuo.

Arise, shine O Jerusalem; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. We have seen his star in the East, and have come with gifts to adore the Lord. Your light is come, O Jerusalem, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon you, and the nations shall walk in your light.

Hymn text

Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear, it is not night if thou be near;
O may no earthborn cloud arise,
to hide thee from thy servant's eyes.

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
my wearied eyelids gently steep, be my last thought, how sweet to rest
for ever on my Saviour's breast.

Abide with me from morn till eve,
for without thee I cannot live;
abide with me when night is nigh,
for without thee I dare not die.

If some poor wandering child of thine have spurned today the voice divine, now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
let him no more lie down in sin.

Watch by the sick, enrich the poor with blessings from thy boundless store;
be every mourner's sleep tonight,
like infants' slumbers, pure and light.

*Hymn text
cont'd* Come near and bless us when we wake, ere through the world our way we take,
till in the ocean of thy love
we lose ourselves in heaven above.

Prayers

Please kneel, as you are able.

A Prayer of Saint John Chrysostom

Leader Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

People Amen.

The Blessing

Officiant The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always.

People Amen.
