July 26, 2020: The Patronal Festival - St. James the Apostle

The Procession

Officiant Let us go forth in peace. Alleluia!

People In the name of Christ. Amen. Alleluia!

Hymn – CP 275

Text: Peter Abelard; tr. John Mason Neale, alt;

Music: Melody Antiphoner, Paris, 1681; Tune: O Quanta Qualia

O what their joy and their glory must be,
those endless sabbaths the blessed ones see:
crowns for the valiant, to weary ones, rest;
God shall be all and in all ever blest.

What are the monarch, the court, and the throne?
What are the peace and the joy that they own?
O that the blest ones, who in it have share,
all that they feel could as fully declare!

Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
vision of peace, that brings joy evermore;
wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er,
nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

Collect at the Station

Officiant Let us pray.

O Almighty God, who willest to be glorified in thy Saints, and didst raise up thy servant James to shine as a light in the world: Shine, we pray thee, in our hearts, that we also in our generation may show forth thy praises, who hast called us out of darkness into thy marvellous light; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Hymn – CP 275

Text: Peter Abelard; tr. John Mason Neale, alt;
Music: Melody Antiphoner, Paris, 1681; Tune: O Quanta Qualia

Now in the meantime, with hearts raised on high,
we for that country must yearn and must sigh,
seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

Low before God with our praises we fall,
of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all:
praise to the Father, and praise to the Son, praise to the Spirit, with them ever one.

Gloria

The word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah: Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: You said, "Woe is me! The Lord has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.” Thus you shall say to him, “Thus says the Lord: I am going to break down what I have built, and pluck up what I have planted – that is, the whole land. And you, do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for I am going to bring disaster upon all flesh, says the Lord; but I will give you your life as a prize of war in every place to which you may go.”

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 20: 20-28

Gospeller The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller The mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Jesus with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favour of him. And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom." But Jesus answered, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to him, "We are able." He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father." When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers. But Jesus called them to him and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave; just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Nicene Creed

Please stand, as you are able.

Officiant Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offering Hymn – CP 283

Text: Horatio Bolton Nelson; rev. The Hymnal, 1982;

Music: Melody English trad.; coll. and arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams;

Tune: King's Lynn

By all your saints still striving, for all your saints at rest, your holy name, O Jesus, for evermore be blessed.
You rose, our King victorious, that they might wear the crown and ever shine in splendour reflected from your throne.

O Lord, for James, we praise you, who fell to Herod's sword.
He drank the cup of suffering and thus fulfilled your word.
Lord, curb our vain impatience for glory and for fame,
equip us for such sufferings as glorify your name.

Then let us praise the Father and worship God the Son and sing to God the Spirit, eternal Three-in-One, till all the ransomed number who stand before the throne, ascribe all power and glory and praise to God alone.

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Hymn – CP 466

Text: Fred Pratt Green; Music: Charles Hubert Hastings Parry;
arr. Michael Fleming; Tune: Repton

How clear is our vocation, Lord, when once we heed your call:
to live according to your word, and daily learn, refreshed, restored, that you are Lord of all, and will not let us fall.

But if, forgetful, we should find your yoke is hard to bear;
if worldly pressures fray the mind and love itself cannot unwind its tangled skein of care: our inward life repair.

We mark your saints, how they became in hindrances more sure,
whose joyful virtues put to shame the casual way we wear your name, and by our faults obscure your power to cleanse and cure.

In what you give us, Lord, to do, together or alone, in old routines or ventures new, may we not cease to look to you,
the cross you hung upon, all you endeavoured done.

The Dismissal

Officiant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.
