

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Day of Pentecost

June 5, 2022

Sung Eucharist at 9:00am

*The Cathedral Church of St. James
Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada*

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Mass Setting: St. Anne Mass - James MacMillan

Music copyright Boosey and Hawkes 1997 Church Hymnary

Prelude

Hymn

Tune: Down Ampney

All

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine, and visit it with thine own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear,
and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight,
and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity mine outward vesture be,
and lowliness become mine inner clothing;
true lowliness of heart, which takes the humbler part,
and o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit finds a dwelling.

Text: Bianco da Siena; tr. Richard Frederick Littledale, alt.; Music: Ralph Vaughan Williams.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Genesis 11: 1-9

Reader Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, 'Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.' And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, 'Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.' The Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. And the Lord said, 'Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another's speech.' So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore it was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth; and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Reader The word of the Lord.

In wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your crea-tures.

All There is the sea, spread far and wide, and there move crea-tures beyond num-ber, both small and^great.

The Second Reading

Acts 2: 1-21

Reader When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’ ”

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able.

The Holy Gospel

John 14: 8-17

Gospeller The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller Philip said to Jesus, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.”

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ.
People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Nicene Creed

Please stand, as you are able.

Presider Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken for the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Diademata

All Come, Holy Spirit, come! In flame our souls with love, transforming every heart and home with wisdom from above.
O let us not despise the humble path Christ trod,
but choose, to shame the worldly-wise, the foolishness of God.

Come with the gift to heal the wounds of guilt and fear,
and to oppression's face reveal the kingdom drawing near.
Where chaos longs to reign, descend, O holy Dove,
and free us all to work again the miracles of love.

Spirit of truth, arise; inspire the prophet's voice:
expose to scorn the tyrant's lies, and bid the poor rejoice.
O Spirit, clear our sight, all prejudice remove,
and help us to discern the right, and covet only love.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Giver of life, receive all we offer you this day. Let the Spirit you bestow on your Church continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; we give you thanks and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfilment of your promise you pour forth your Spirit upon us, filling us with gifts and leading us into all truth. You give us power to proclaim your gospel to all nations and to serve you as a royal priesthood. Therefore we join our voices with angels and archangels, and with all those in whom the Spirit dwells, to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus & Benedictus

9 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might

17 Heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry Ho - san - na in the high - est.

25 Bles-sed is he, O bles-sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please assume a posture of prayer that is appropriate – stand, sit or kneel.

Presider We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling a people into covenant with you; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, Father, according to his command,

People we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Presider and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

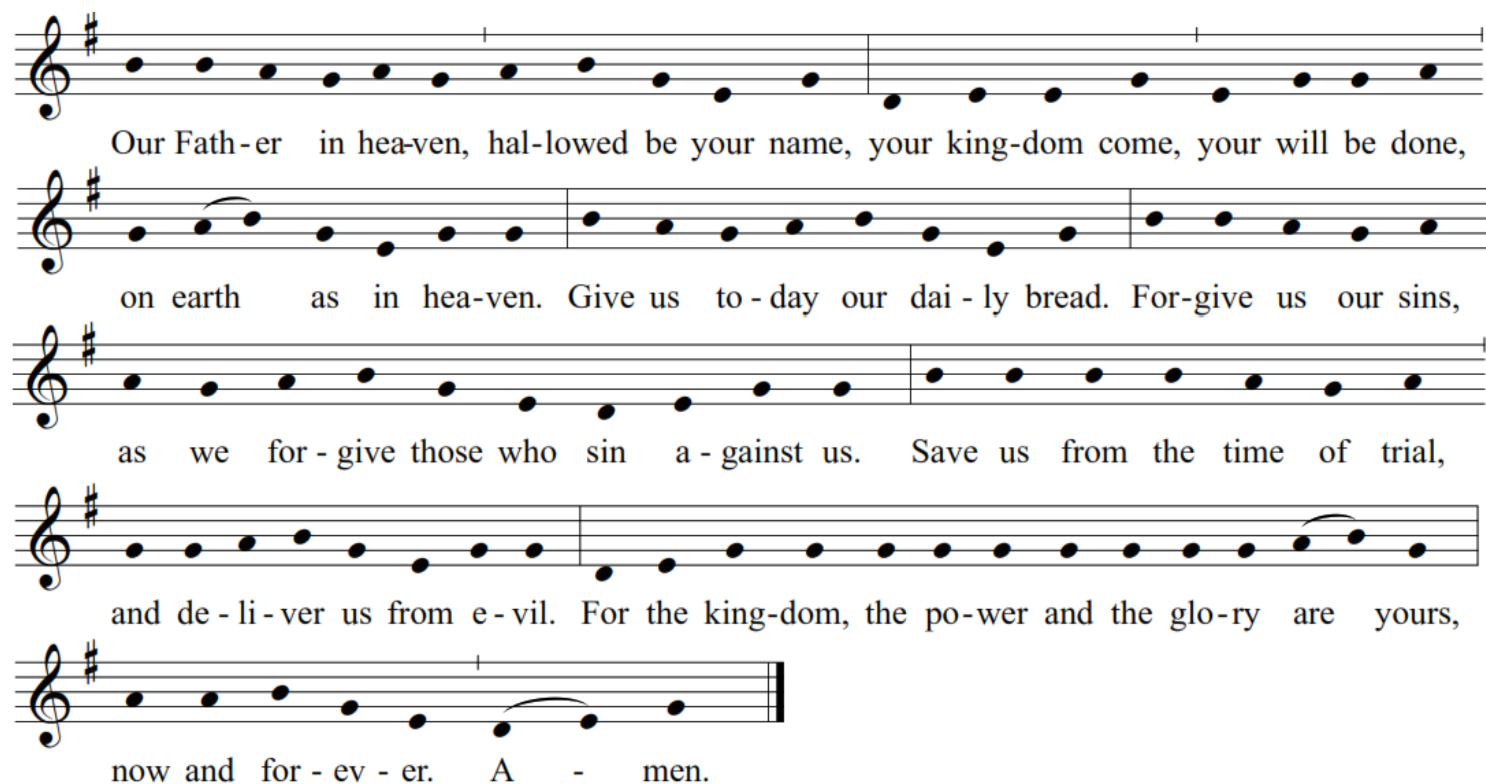

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Hymn

Tune: Woodlands

All

Filled with the Spirit's power, with one accord
the infant church confessed its risen Lord.
O Holy Spirit, in the church today
no less your power of fellowship display.

Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire,
that unity may be our great desire.
Give joy and peace; give faith to hear your call,
and readiness in each to work for all.

Widen our love, good Spirit, to embrace in your strong care all those of every race.
Like wind and fire with life among us move,
till we are known as Christ's, and Christians prove.

DIOCESE MOVES TO GREEN STAGE

Dear Friends,

It has been a long and often challenging journey, but we have finally reached the point where our bishops feel comfortable moving the parishes of the Diocese into the Green Stage of the Pandemic Protocols. I am deeply grateful to our clergy, staff, volunteers, and members for the patience and care exhibited during this challenging time in the world and Church. Bless you.

Today, Pentecost Sunday, June 5, the wearing of masks becomes optional for worship and fellowship, and all parishes may resume the informal sharing of food and drinks (e.g., coffee hours) and may once again offer the Common Cup in the Eucharist.

We are also delighted to be hosting a special Choral Evensong today at 4:30pm to mark the Platinum Jubilee for Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth. Our affection for Her Majesty here at St. James Cathedral is strong and we hope you are able to join us to celebrate her. Please see page 2 for more information about a special exhibit to mark this event in the Queen's life and ministry.

TODAY AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

Starting today at 9:00am & 11:00am: An Anniversary Year, a special souvenir

We invite you to commemorate the 225th Anniversary of the Anglican community in Toronto with a unique souvenir. Rendered in pewter, this ornament, depicting the Cathedral of St. James, could find a home in a window or on your Christmas tree. Ornaments are about 2.5 x 1.5 inches and come with ribbon, ready for hanging in that special place, and are estimated to cost about $20 to $25 each. Help remember our history and the work of our community in this city with this special souvenir. The cost of each ornament is dependent upon how much we order (the more ornaments we order, the cheaper it will be for everyone), so if you would like to order one or more of these one-of-a-kind ornaments, please contact Kate Uchendu at kate1973.ku@gmail.com.

Starting today we will have samples on display during coffee hour and at the entrance of the Cathedral before the 9:00am and 11:00am services.

Today at 11:00am: Sanctus in 7 languages to celebrate Pentecost

Thomas Bell, our Music Director and Organist, has composed a setting of the mass which receives its first performance today Sunday. The text of the Sanctus is sung in the languages of those originally present at the first Pentecost, as described in the book of Acts: Italian, Macedonian, Ancient Aramaic, Greek, Hebrew, Syriac and others. It is written for choir, organ and soprano saxophone, blending traditional and contemporary sounds to create a new musical soundscape.

Today at 4:30pm: Special Exhibit to Mark the Queen's Jubilee

This year, we celebrate the Platinum Jubilee of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II who celebrates 70 years on the Throne. We invite you to enjoy the special exhibition commemorating the Queen's Jubilee. You will be able to see the Royal Bible given to the Cathedral by Edward VII when he was Prince of Wales in 1860.

The exhibit will be open and on view today June 5 during the special Jubilee Evensong service at 4:30pm. Everyone is welcome to attend. Admission is free.

The service will also be live-streamed on the Diocesan YouTube Channel at youtube.com/tordio135

DID YOU KNOW? An Anniversary Year 1797-2022

In 1807, the first wooden "Church at York" was built with the help of the soldiers of the Garrison and opened on Easter Sunday. During the War of 1812, it was used as a hospital but in the conflict it was damaged by American troops. In 1818, the church was enlarged and a bell tower was added; the bell was used as a fire alarm for the town. The church was officially dedicated to St. James the Apostle in 1828.

As we celebrate 225 years of Anglican community in this city, please make a gift in support of St. James Cathedral, so that we can continue our work of worship, ministry and community outreach. We cannot do it without your ongoing commitment. Thank you.

LOOKING AHEAD

Next week: A Service Commemorating the Life of Abp. Desmond Tutu

On Sunday, June 12 at 4:30pm, we will host a memorial service for Archbishop Desmond Tutu, an internationally recognized civil rights advocate and leader of the non-violent opposition to apartheid in the presence of H. E. Rieaz Shaik, South African High Commissioner in Ottawa.

This event is organized by St. James Cathedral and Trinity College, in association with the office of the Primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, the Diocese of Toronto, the South African Consulate-General at Toronto, and Adriaans & Associates Event Management Specialists.

All are welcome. The service will also be live-streamed on the Cathedral YouTube Channel Doors Open a great success!

During the weekend, at St. James Cathedral we welcomed approximately 3,200 visitors at Doors Open.

Our guests enjoyed tours to learn about the Cathedral and its contribution to the city and to get to know more about the 225 years of the Anglican community in Toronto. Also, they visited the Bell Tower, heard a demonstration of our organ, examined artefacts from St. James' history, and attended an instructed Eucharist.

We send a special shout-out to Robert Gilbert the Doors Open Coordinator, to Nancy Mallett who led the team making the Queen's Jubilee Exhibit, the volunteers, and everyone in the community who helped make this possible.
