

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

July 10, 2022

Choral Evensong at 4:30pm

*The Cathedral Church of St. James
Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada*

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Introit      Blest are the Pure in Heart

Henry Walford Davies

Choir      Blest are the pure in heart,
For they shall see our God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;
Their soul is Christ's abode.
Still to the lowly soul
He doth Himself impart;
And for His cradle and His throne
Chooseth the pure in heart.

Please stand, as you are able, when the organ plays.

Preces and Responses

Humphrey Clucas

Officiant      O Lord, open thou our lips;
Choir              And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Officiant      O God, make speed to save us;
Choir              O Lord, make haste to help us.

Officiant      Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Officiant      Praise ye the Lord;
Choir              The Lord's Name be praised.

Psalm 18, Part 2

Please be seated.

Choir              For who is God but the Lord,
                            and who is the rock except our God?
It is God who girds me about with strength and makes my way perfect.
He makes my feet like hinds' feet
                            so that I tread surely on the heights.

He teaches my hands to fight
and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.
You have given me the shield of your salvation;
your right hand upholds me and your grace has made me great.
You enlarge my strides beneath me,
yet my feet do not slide.
I will pursue my enemies and overtake them,
nor turn again until I have destroyed them.
I will smite them down so they cannot rise;
they shall fall beneath my feet.
You have girded me with strength for the battle;
you will cast down my enemies under me;
You will make my foes turn their backs upon me
and I shall destroy them that hate me.
They will cry out, but there shall be none to help them;
they will cry to the Lord, but he will not answer.
I shall beat them as small as the dust on the wind;
I will cast them out as the mire in the streets.
You will deliver me from the strife of the peoples;
you will make me the head of the nations.
A people I have not known shall serve me;
as soon as they hear me, they shall obey me;
strangers will humble themselves before me.
The foreign peoples will lose heart
and come trembling out of their strongholds.
The Lord lives, and blessed be my rock!
Praised be the God of my salvation,
Even the God who vindicates me
and subdues the peoples under me!
You that deliver me from my enemies,
you will set me up above my foes;
from the violent you will deliver me;
Therefore will I give you thanks, O Lord, among the nations and sing praises to your name,
To the one who gives great victory to his king
and shows faithful love to his anointed, to David and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

First Lesson

Please be seated.

2 Kings 22

Reader

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the way of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the secretary, to the house of the Lord, saying, 'Go up to the high priest Hilkiah, and have him count the entire sum of the money that has been brought into the house of the Lord, which the keepers of the threshold have collected from the people; let it be given into the hand of the workers who have the oversight of the house of the Lord; let them give it to the workers who are at the house of the Lord, repairing the house, that is, to the carpenters, to the builders, to the masons; and let them use it to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the house. But no account shall be asked from them for the money that is delivered into their hand, for they deal honestly.'

The high priest Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, 'I have found the book of the law in the house of the Lord.' When Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, he read it. Then Shaphan the secretary came to the king, and reported to the king, 'Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workers who have oversight of the house of the Lord.' Shaphan the secretary informed the king, 'The priest Hilkiah has given me a book.' Shaphan then read it aloud to the king.

When the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes. Then the king commanded the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary, and the king's servant Asaiah, saying, 'Go, inquire of the Lord for me, for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against us, because our ancestors did not obey the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us.'

So the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to the prophetess Huldah the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; she resided in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter, where they consulted her. She declared to them, 'Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me, Thus says the Lord, I will indeed bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants—all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read. Because they have abandoned me and have made offerings to other gods, so that they have provoked me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched. But as to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, thus shall you say to him, Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Regarding the words that you have heard, because your heart was penitent, and you humbled yourself before the Lord, when you heard how I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the Lord. Therefore, I will gather you to your ancestors, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring on this place.' They took the message back to the king.

Reader Here endeth the first lesson.

Magnificat Please stand, as you are able. Thomas Attwood Walmisley in d minor

Choir My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Second Lesson

Please be seated.

John 14: 15-31

Reader

Jesus said, 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.' Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, 'Lord, how is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?' Jesus answered him, 'Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

'I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, "I am going away, and I am coming to you." If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe. I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me; but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us be on our way.'

Reader

Here endeth the second lesson.

Nunc Dimittis     Please stand, as you are able.     Thomas Attwood Walmisley in d minor
Choir

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace,
according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles,
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Hymn at the Collection

Tune: Monkland

All Let us, with a gladsome mind, praise the Lord, for he is kind:
For his mercies aye endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

Let us blaze his name abroad, for of gods he is the God:
For his mercies aye endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

He with all-commanding might filled the new-made world with light:
For his mercies aye endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

He the golden-tressèd sun caused all day his course to run:
For his mercies aye endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

And the hornèd moon at night 'mid her spangled sisters bright:
For his mercies aye endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

All things living he doth feed, with full hand supplies their need:
For his mercies aye endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

Let us, with a gladsome mind, praise the Lord, for he is kind:
For his mercies aye endure, ever faithful, ever sure.

People Amen.
