We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami / Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

The Burial Sentences Please stand, as you are able. William Croft

Choir I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord:
he that believeth in me,
though he were dead, yet shall he live:
and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shalt stand at the latter day upon the earth.
And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:
whom I shall see for myself,
and mine eyes shall behold,
and not another.

We brought nothing into this world,
and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away;
blessed be the Name of the Lord.

The National Anthem

All O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise, the true north strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land, glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

*Ô Canada! Terre de nos aïeux, ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée, il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée, protégera nos foyers et nos droits, protégera nos foyers et nos droits.*

Hymn

Tune: Crimond

All The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want: he makes me down to lie in pastures green; he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, even for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill;
for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me, and in God's house for evermore my dwelling place shall be.

Text: Ps. 23; para. Scottish Psalter, 1650; Music: Melody Jessie Seymour Irvine

Psalm 121

Chant by Henry Walford Davies

Choir

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills:

O whence cometh my help?

My help cometh even from the LORD, who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD himself is thy keeper:
the LORD is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day,
neither the moon by night.

The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil:
yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in,
from this time forth for evermore.

Psalm 130

Chant after Henry Purcell

Choir

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O LORD;
Lord, hear my voice.

O let thine ears consider well
the voice of my complaint.

If thou, LORD, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss,
O Lord, who may abide it?

But there is forgiveness with thee;
therefore shalt thou be feared.
I look for the LORD; my soul doth wait for him:
in his word is my trust.
My soul looketh for the Lord more than watchmen for the morning, yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
O Israel, trust in the LORD, for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.
And he shall redeem Israel from all his sins.

Please stand, as you are able.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Please be seated.

First Lesson: Wisdom 3:1-9

Read by The Honourable Doug Ford

Reader

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt-offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

Here endeth the first lesson.

Antiphon

Merbecke

Choir

I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me,
Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord:
Even so, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labours.

Magnificat*Please stand, as you are able.Collegium Regale - Herbert HowellsChoir*

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Second Lesson: Revelation 21:1-7

*Read in Kanien'kéha (Mohawk)
by Thanyehténhas (Nathan Brinklow)*

Reader

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life. Those who conquer will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be my children.

Here endeth the second lesson.

Nunc Dimittis Please stand, as you are able. Collegium Regale - Herbert Howells

Choir Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Anthem Holy is the True Light

William Henry Harris

Choir Holy is the True Light, and passing wonderful, lending radiance to them that endured in the heat of the conflict, from Christ they inherit a home of unfading splendour, wherein they rejoice with gladness evermore.
 Alleluia!

Homily

The Most Reverend Dr. Linda Nicholls

Hymn

Tune: Praise My Soul

All

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet your tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, evermore his praises sing.

Alleluia, alleluia,
praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour to our forebears in distress;
praise him, still the same forever, slow to chide and swift to bless;
alleluia, alleluia,
glorious in his faithfulness.

Father-like he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us, rescues us from all our foes:
alleluia, alleluia,
widely as his mercy flows.

Frail as summer's flower we flourish;
blows the wind and it is gone;
but, while mortals rise and perish, God endures unchanging on:
alleluia, alleluia,
praise the high eternal one.

Angels, help us to adore him;
you behold him face to face;
sun and moon bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space.
Alleluia, alleluia,
praise with us the God of grace.

Metropolitan of Rupert's Land

Eternal God, our heavenly Father, we bless your holy name for all that you have given us in and through the life of Elizabeth, our Queen. We give you thanks for her long and full life; for her strength of character; and for her devotion and service to family, nation and Commonwealth. We praise you for her generosity; the many contributions she made to our world; and the encouragement her faithful witness has provided to so many. Accept our thanks and praise, we pray, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People

Amen.

*Metropolitan
of Ontario*

Gracious God, we commend to you the soul of your faithful servant Elizabeth, our Queen. Receive her into your heavenly realm, and crown her with the diadem of glory, as she lays down her earthly burden of duty and is released to take up the joy of eternal praise. We give you thanks for the witness of her long life of service, sustained by a sure and certain hope. We pray that the comfort of your Holy Spirit will be with the Royal Family and all who mourn, until such time as we are reunited in the general resurrection of all the faithful departed in the communion of saints and in life everlasting. This we pray through the mercy of our Risen Saviour, Jesus Christ the Lord.

People

Amen.

*Moderator,
The Presbyterian Church in Canada*

Father of all mercies and God of all consolation, you pursue us with untiring love and dispel the shadow of death with the bright dawn of life. Give courage to The King and the Royal Family in their loss and sorrow. Be their refuge and strength, O Lord; reassure them of your continuing love and lift them from the depths of grief into the peace and light of your presence. Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, by dying has destroyed our death, and by rising, restored our life. Your Holy Spirit, our comforter, speaks for us in groans too deep for words. Come alongside your people, remind them of your eternal presence and give them your comfort and strength.

People

Amen.

Bishop Ordinary to the Canadian Armed Forces

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless our Sovereign Lord, King Charles the Third, the Parliaments of the Commonwealth, and all who are set in authority under him; that they may order all things in wisdom, righteousness, and peace, to the honour of thy holy Name, and the good of thy Church and people; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People

Amen.

Metropolitan of British Columbia

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light, look favourably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery. By the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquillity the plan of salvation. Let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

The Kontakion Please join in the refrain, sung first by the choir. Rupert Lang the creator and the maker of all;

and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to the earth we shall return. Refrain

Choir For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, “You are dust, and to dust you shall return.
All of us go down to the dust;
yet even at the grave we make our song:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.” Refrain

The Primate Rest eternal grant unto her, O Lord.
