

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Twenty-Third Sunday after Pentecost

Remembrance Sunday

November 13, 2022

Sung Eucharist at 9:00am

*The Cathedral Church of St. James
Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada*

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Mass Setting: New Plainsong – David Hurd

Prelude

Hymn

Tune: St. Anne

All

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home:
under the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone, and our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood, or earth received its frame,
from everlasting thou art God, to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time like an ever-rolling stream bears all our years away;
they fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last, and our eternal home.

Text: Ps. 90; para. Isaac Watts, alt.; Music: William Croft.

The Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 3: 6-13

Reader Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labour we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able.

Gospel Acclamation

Cantor Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

People Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Cantor Look up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.

People Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Holy Gospel

Luke 21: 5-19

Gospeller The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, 'As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.' They asked him, 'Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?' And he said, 'Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and "The time is near!" Do not go after them. 'When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.'

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Nicene Creed

Please stand, as you are able.

Presider Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please remain standing.

Presider Gathered on this holy day, in response to the redemptive love of God to share in the breaking of bread and in the prayers, let us pray for the church and the world saying, 'Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer'.

Intercessor Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites us to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Please kneel, as you are able.

Presider Most merciful God,
All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
People Amen.

The Peace

We offer each other a sign of peace, as you feel comfortable.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken to support the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Rhuddlan

All God of freedom, God of justice, you whose love is strong as death, you who saw the dark of prison, you who knew the price of faith—touch our world of sad oppression with your Spirit's healing breath.

Rid the earth of torture's terror, you whose hands were nailed to wood, hear the cries of pain and protest, you who shed the tears and blood—move in us the power of pity restless for the common good.

Make in us a captive conscience quick to hear, to act, to plead;
make us truly sisters, brothers of whatever race or creed—teach us to be fully human, open to each other's need.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Holy God, in this eucharist we renew our baptismal covenant. Help us, through our offering this day, to renounce all things that draw us from your love. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, for the gift of a world full of wonder, and for our life which comes from you. By your power you sustain the universe.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Presider You created us to love you with all our heart, and to love each other as ourselves, but we rebel against you by the evil that we do.

In Jesus, your Son, you bring healing to our world and gather us into one great family. Therefore, with all who serve you on earth and in heaven, we praise your wonderful name, as we sing,

Sanctus & Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Please assume a posture of prayer that is appropriate – stand, sit or kneel.

Presider We give you thanks and praise, loving Father, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us you showed us how much you love us. He cares for the poor and the hungry. He suffers with the sick and the rejected.

Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love. On the cross he defeated the power of sin and death. By raising him from the dead you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Presider On the night before he gave up his life for us, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is my body which is given for you.”

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which is shed for you and for many, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me.”

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Presider Gracious God, with this bread and wine we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus, and we offer ourselves to you in him.

Send your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts, that we may know the presence of Jesus in the breaking of bread, and share in the life of the family of your children.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Presider Father, you call us to be your servants; fill us with the courage and love of Jesus, that all the world may gather in joy at the table of your kingdom.

We sing your praise, almighty Father, through Jesus, our Lord, in the power of the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

McNeil Robinson

Presider As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

Our Fath-er in hea-ven, hal-lowed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread. For-give us our sins, as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of trial, and de-li-ver us from e-vil. For the king-dom, the po-wer and the glo-ry are yours, now and for-ev-er. A-men.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider Creator of all, you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Agnus Dei

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer-cy on us.
Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: grant us peace.

The Communion

Presider The gifts of God for the People of God.

People Thanks be to God.

All baptized persons are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Gluten-free hosts are available upon request. It is not permitted to dip the bread in the wine for health reasons. If you choose not to receive communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate this to the priest.

Communion Hymn

All Take, O take me as I am; summon out what I shall be;
set your seal upon my heart and live in me.

Communion Hymn

Tune: O Quanta Qualia

All "Come now, you blessed; eat at my table," said Jesus Christ to the righteous above.
"When I was hungry, thirsty and homeless,
Sick and in prison, you showed me your love."

When did we see You hungry or thirsty?
When were You homeless, a stranger alone?
When did we see You sick or in prison?
What have we done that You call us Your own?

"When you gave bread to earth's hungry children,
When you gave shelter to war's refugees,
When you remembered those most forgotten,
You cared for me in the smallest of these,"

Christ, when we see You out on life's roadways, looking to us in the faces of need,
Then may we know You, welcome, and show You love that is faithful in word and in deed.

Prayer after Communion

Presider Let us pray.

Please stand, as you are able.

Gracious God, in this sacrament we have shared the body and blood of Christ. May we who have been nourished by holy things bear witness to his light, and share in his eternal priesthood; for he is Lord for ever and ever.

People Amen.

Presider Glory to God,
People whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People Amen.

Announcements

Hymn

Tune: Love Unknown

All Hope for the world's despair: we feel the nations' pain;
can anything repair this broken earth again?
For this we pray: in every place
a spark of grace to light the way.

Wisdom for all who bear the future in their hand,
entrusted with the care of this and every land.
When comes the hour, O Lord, we pray,
inspire the way we spend our power.

Honour for all who've paid war's painful, bitter price,
when duty called they made the greatest sacrifice.
Their memory will never cease to cry for peace and harmony.

Love for the human heart: when hate grows from our fears and inwardly we start to turn our ploughs to spears.
Help us to sow love's precious seed
in word and deed, that peace may grow.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

We all know that the month of November means ‘remembrance’ to us Christians – we begin the month with All Saints’ and All Souls, about which the Vicar wrote so compellingly last week. November also means changes – a time change, dramatic changes in our experience of daylight and darkness, changes from the commercial focus on Hallowe’en right into full-blown Christmas! It also, of course, includes November 11 – Remembrance Day. For over one hundred years, the Eleventh Hour of the Eleventh Day of the Eleventh Month has been a solemn and important ‘moment’ – sometimes rarely more than a moment – in which we honour those who have given the ultimate sacrifice and all those who have served in armed conflicts over the years. The ways in which we ‘keep’ Remembrance Day have changed so much in the memory of many of us – from the almost mandatory attendance at large and colourful church services, replete with regiments of military personnel, bands playing, bugles sounding – to civic services which are now mostly observed on the weekends which bookend the actual day. For too many years, some of us remember, November 11 seemed only to celebrate the victors and vilify the enemy. It has taken much of that century of Remembrance Days to acknowledge that it is for peace that we stop and remember; it is for reconciliation among peoples that we pray, offer our hymns, keep moments of silence, and ‘still’ the world. So, too, here at the Cathedral we have welcomed the regiments with whom we have historic connections, we have gathered at our own cenotaph; we have silenced our bells for a moment.

Our children (and our grandchildren) have been the beneficiaries of school programmes that have taught so much and raised such keen awareness among our next generations – much more so than those of us who were children of veterans and grew up in families directly connected to either of the World Wars or the conflict in Korea. The generations that follow have spoken much more of peace than we did; they have an appreciation of the poppy that we maybe lacked; they are much richer for those educational opportunities.

Some of us long for the ‘good old days’ of Choral Matins with rows of pews full of magnificently clad soldiers, sailors, and aviators. But those good old days will not come again – much better that we gather at our local cenotaphs, remember appropriately and deeply, offer our prayers together in church in the context of the Eucharist – the ultimate feast of forgiveness and reconciliation. We have ‘kept faith’ with those who fought and fell – we will remember them!

Thanks be to God!

Peter Wall

At the 11:00am service: In celebration of our 225th Anniversary, we welcome the Primate, The Most Reverend Linda Nicholls, who will preach at the service.

At the 4:30pm service: We will commemorate Barbados' Independence at St. James Cathedral. This service will be also live-streamed via the Cathedral YouTube channel.

Sunday, November 27:

4:00pm: Organ Recital

4:30pm: Advent Lessons and Carols Service

Enter into the season of Advent with this seasonal favourite service of readings and music! This service will be both live-streamed and in-person.

Dedication of Lights

During and immediately after the service we will inaugurate our new exterior lighting, which recognizes the historic importance of St. James Cathedral and enhances the façade and the historical character of the site. The installation of the lights marks the realization of a long-held ambition at St. James and, although the work was completed in 2020, the inauguration has been postponed because of the pandemic. We are “A Light in the City”, a witness of justice and compassion. We will give thanks for and recognize those who have contributed so generously to our project. Refreshments in Snell Hall will follow the ceremony. Please join us!

Christmas Memorial Flowers

A beautiful way to remember a loved one at Christmas is through the memorial poinsettias that will be placed in the Cathedral for the season. Names can be emailed to lscapillato@stjamescathedral.ca, placed in a clearly marked envelope on the collection plate, or called into 416-364-7865, ext. *229. We are asking for donations of $40 (minimum) per name or per couple. Donations will be designated to the Cathedral Flower Fund and are tax-receiptable. Please indicate whether you will be making your payment by credit card online or by cheque on the offering plate/by mail. The deadline for submitting memorial names will be Wednesday, December 7.

ADVENT AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

Advent through the Gospels

Everyone is invited to gather during the 4 weeks of Advent as we read and reflect together on the themes we find in the Sunday gospel passages.

There are three ways to participate:

- ‘Zoom’ with the Interim Dean on the four Monday evenings of Advent at 7:00pm (Nov. 28 - Dec. 19). Please register for Zoom coordinates by sending an email to info@stjamescathedral.ca
- Join in-person the Scripture Circle in the Library on the four Wednesday mornings of Advent at 11:00am (Nov 30-Dec 21)
- Join in-person the “Becoming the Story We Tell” Small Group in the Library on the four Wednesdays evenings of Advent at 7:00pm (Nov 30-Dec 21).
For one hour, we will think about what Advent means, how we approach the Christmas season, how we ‘prepare ourselves’, and the ways in which four specific Gospel readings for the season speak to us. We will conclude each evening in prayer.
You will be sent the readings. Come - listen - share - learn - enjoy!

Reading in the Cathedral!

Would you like to join the Guild of Lectors and be one of the readers at one or all of the Sunday services in the Cathedral (9:00am, 11:00am, and 4:30pm)?

St. James Cathedral needs YOU! If you are interested, please send an email to Canon Stephen at sfields@stjamescathedral.ca or Canon Beth at bbenson@stjamescathedral.ca Stay tuned for a training workshop. Thank you!

Cemetery updates

St. James' Cemetery & Crematorium is pleased to announce the opening of the new St. Peter Road Section for full-size graves. Only 92 graves are available for selection. Cathedral parishioners will have the first opportunity to purchase graves until December 1, 2022, after which they will be offered to the general public. Please contact John O'Brien or Terri Ward at the cemetery office at 416-964-9194 or cemetery@stjamescathedral.ca to arrange an appointment or receive further information.
