Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

A WARM WELCOME AND MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

Hymn Once in Royal David's City Tune: Irby
Solo Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.
Choir He came down to earth from heaven who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly, lived on earth our Saviour holy.
Please stand, as you are able.
All And, through all his wondrous childhood, he would honour and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden in whose gentle arms he lay:
Christian children all must be mild, obedient, good as he.
For he is our childhood's pattern, day by day like us he grew;
He was little, weak, and helpless, tears and smiles like us he knew;
And he feeleth for our sadness, and he shareth in our gladness.
And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own redeeming love,
For that Child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heaven above;
And he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.
Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing by, we shall see him; but in heaven, set at God's right hand on high;
when, like stars, his children crowned all in white shall wait around.

Text: Cecil Frances Alexander; Music: Henry John Gauntlett, 1858.

Bidding Prayer

Officiant Beloved in Christ, in this Christmastide, let it be our care and delight to hear again the message of the Angels, and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, and the Babe lying in a manger. Let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our disobedience unto the glorious Redemption brought us by this holy Child; and let us make this place glad with our carols of praise.

But first, let us pray for the needs of his whole world; for peace and goodwill over all the earth; for the mission and unity of the Church for which he died, and especially in this country and within this city. And because this of all things would rejoice his heart, let us at this time remember in his name the poor and the helpless, the hungry and the oppressed; the sick and those who mourn; the lonely and the unloved; the aged and the little children; and all those who know not the Lord Jesus, or who love him not, or who by sin have grieved his heart of love.

Lastly, let us remember before God his pure and lowly Mother, and all those who rejoice with us, but upon another shore and in a greater light, that multitude which no one can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this Lord Jesus, we for evermore are one. These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of heaven, in the words which Christ himself hath taught us:

All Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant The Almighty God bless us with his grace; Christ give us the joys of everlasting life; and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all.

People Amen.

Please be seated.

*If Ye Would Hear the Angels Sing –
Text: D Greenwell; Music: Thomas Bell*

Choir

If ye would hear the angels sing
'Peace on earth and mercy mild,'
Think of him who was once a child,
on Christmas Day in the morning.

If ye would hear the angels sing,
rise, and spread your Christmas fare;
'Tis merrier still the more that share,
on Christmas Day in the morning.

Rise and bake your Christmas bread:
Christians rise! The world is bare,
and blank, and dark with want and care,
yet Christmas comes in the morning.

If ye would hear the angels sing,
Christians! See ye let each door Stand wider than it e'er stood before,
on Christmas Day in the morning.

Rise, and open wide the door;
Christians rise! The world is wide,
And many there be that stand outside,
yet Christmas comes in the morning.

First Lesson

Genesis 3: 8-15, 17-19

God tells sinful Adam that he has lost the life of Paradise and that his seed will bruise the serpent's head.

Reader

And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden. And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. And the Lord God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

Reader Thanks be to God.

Adam Lay Ybounden – Boris Ord

Choir

Adam lay ybounden bounden in a bond
Four thousand winters though he not too long
And all was for an apple, an apple that he took
As clerkes finden written in their book
Nay had the apple taken been the apple taken been Nay had never our lady abeen heavenly queen Blessed be the time that apple taken was Therefore we bound singen Deo gracias, deo gracias!

Second Lesson

Genesis 22: 15-18

God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.

Reader

And the angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

This is the Truth Sent from Above – Traditional arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams; (v. 3: T. Bell)

Choir

This is the truth sent from above, the truth of God, the God of love;
Therefore don't turn me from your door, but hearken all, both rich and poor.

The first thing, which I do relate, that God at first did man create
The next thing, which to you I tell, woman was made with him to dwell.

Thus we were heirs to endless woes, till God the Lord did interpose
For so a promise soon did run that He'd redeem us with a Son.

And at this season of the year our blest Redeemer did appear
He here did live, and here did preach, and many thousands He did teach.

Thus He in love to us behaved, to show us how we must be saved
And if you want to know the way be pleased to hear what He did say.

Please stand, as you are able.

Hymn

In the Bleak Midwinter

Tune: Cranham

All

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan, earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter, long ago.

Our God, heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;
heaven and earth shall flee away when he comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter a stable place sufficed
the Lord God Almighty, Jesus Christ.

Angels and archangels may have gathered there;
cherubim and seraphim thronged the air;
but his mother only in her maiden bliss,
worshipped the beloved with a kiss.

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
if I were a wise man, I would do my part;
yet what I can, I give him—give my heart.

Text: Christina Georgina Rossetti; Music: Gustav Theodore Holst.

Third Lesson*Please be seated.Isaiah 9: 2, 6-7The prophet foretells the coming of the Saviour.Reader*

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Carol*There is No Rose – Philip StopfordChoir*

There is no rose of such virtue as is the rose that bare Jesu: Alleluya.
 For in this rose contained was heaven and earth in little space: *Res miranda*¹.
 By that rose we may well see that he is God in person three: *Pares forma*².
 The angels sung the shepherds to: “Gloria in excelsis Deo”, *Gaudeamus*³.
 Leave we all this worldly mirth, and follow we this joyful birth: Transeamus.

¹Res miranda = thing of wonder. ²Pares forma = Equal in form. ³Gaudeamus = Let us rejoice.

Tune: Es ist ein' Ros

All

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung, of Jesse's lineage coming as seers of old have sung.
 It came, a blossom bright amid the cold of winter,
 when half spent was the night.

Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the Rose I have in mind;
 with Mary we behold it, the virgin mother kind.
 To show God's love aright, she bore to us a Saviour,
 when half spent was the night.

O Flower, whose fragrance tender with sweetness fills the air, dispel in glorious splendour the darkness everywhere;
 true man, yet very God, from sin and death now save us,
 and share our every load.

Text; St. 1-2, German (15th cent.); tr. Theodore Baker; St. 3, Friedrich Layritz; tr. Harriet Reynolds Krauth Spaeth.
 Music: Melody Alte Catholische Geistliche Kirchengesäng, Köln, 1599; harm. Michael Praetorius.

Fourth Lesson Please be seated.

Isaiah 11: 1-4a, 6-9

The peace that Christ will bring is foreshown.

Reader And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord; And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

Reader Thanks be to God.

Carol A Tender Shoot - Otto Goldschmidt, translated: W. Bartholomew

Choir A tender shoot has started up from a root of grace, as ancient seers imparted from Jesse's holy race;
It blooms without a blight, blooms in the cold bleak winter turning our darkness into light.
This shoot, Isaiah taught us, from Jesse's root should spring;
the Virgin Mary brought us the branch of which we sing:
our God of endless might gave her this child to save us, thus turning darkness into light.

Fifth Lesson

Luke 1: 26-35, 38

The angel Gabriel salutes the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Reader And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

The Angel Gabriel – arr. Andrew Ager

Choir

The angel Gabriel from heaven came
With wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame
All hail said he thou lowly maiden Mary
Most highly favoured lady. Gloria!

For known a blessed mother thou shalt be
All generations laud and honour thee
Thy son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold
Most highly favoured lady. Gloria!

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head
To me be as it pleaseth God she said
My soul shall laud and magnify his holy name
Most highly favoured lady. Gloria!

Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ, was born
In Bethlehem all on a Christmas morn
And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say
Most highly favoured lady. Gloria!

St. Luke tells of the birth of Jesus.

Reader And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David) : To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Reader Thanks be to God.

Little Lamb who made thee dost thou know who made thee
Gave thee life & bid thee feed. By the stream & o'er the mead;
Gave thee clothing of delight, softest clothing woolly bright;
Gave thee such a tender voice, making all the vales rejoice!
Little Lamb who made thee dost thou know who made thee

Little Lamb I'll tell thee, Little Lamb I'll tell thee!

Hymn

While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks

Tune: Winchester Old

All

While shepherds watched their flocks by night all seated on the ground, the angel of the Lord came down and glory shone around.

“Fear not,” said he, for mighty dread had seized their troubled mind.

“Glad tidings of great joy I bring to you and humankind.

To you in David’s town this day is born of David’s line a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord; and this shall be the sign:

the heavenly babe you there shall find to human view displayed, all meanly wrapped in swaddling bands, and in a manger laid.”

Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith appeared a shining throng of angels praising God, who thus addressed their joyful song:

“All glory be to God on high, and to the world be peace;
good will henceforth from heaven and earth begin, and never cease.”

Text: Luke 2: 8-14; para. Nahum Tate, alt.; Music: Melody Whole Book of Psalms, 1592.

Seventh Lesson

Luke 2: 8-16

The shepherds go to the manger.

Reader

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those whom he favours.
And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

Rise Up, Shepherd, and Follow - arr. Carl Davis

Choir

Follow, follow, rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Follow the star of Bethlehem, rise up, shepherd, and follow.

There's a star in the East on Christmas morn,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

It will lead to the place where the Savior's born,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Leave your sheep and leave your lambs,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Leave your ewes and leave your rams,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

If you take good heed of the angel's words,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

You'll forget your flocks, you'll forget your herds,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Leave your sheep and leave your lambs,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Leave your ewes and leave your rams,

Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Follow, follow, rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Hymn

Away in a Manger

Tune: Cradle Song

All

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
but little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes.
I love you, Lord Jesus—look down from on high and stay by my side until morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask you to stay close by me for ever and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in your tender care,
and fit us for heaven to live with you there.

Matthew 2: 1-11

The wise men are led by the star to Jesus.

Reader

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

John 1: 1-14

St. John unfolds the great mystery of the Incarnation.

Reader

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of people. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all people through him might believe. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. That was the true Light, which lighteth every one that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the children of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of human will, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Hymn Hark! The Herald Angels Sing

Tune: Mendelssohn

All Hark! The herald angels sing, glory to the new-born King, peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled.
Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic host proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King."

Christ, by highest heaven adored, Christ, the everlasting Lord, late in time behold him come, offspring of a virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see! Hail, the incarnate deity, pleased as one of us to dwell, Jesus, our Emmanuel.
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King."

Hail, the heaven-born Prince of peace! Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings, risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die,
Born to raise each child of earth, born to give us second birth.
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King."

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.
Almighty God, as we prepare with joy to celebrate the gift of the Christ-child, embrace the earth with your glory and be for us a living hope in Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The Blessing

Officiant May the God of infinite goodness scatter the darkness of sin and brighten your hearts with holiness; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People Amen.
