

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

*January 29, 2023
Sung Eucharist at 9:00am*

*The Cathedral Church of St. James
Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada*

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Mass Setting: Mass of St. Thomas - David Thorne

Prelude

Hymn

Tune: Duke Street

All Jesus shall reign where e'er the sun doth his successive journeys run;
his kingdom stretch from shore to shore, till moons shall wax and wane no more.

People and realms of every tongue dwell on his love with sweetest song, and infant voices shall proclaim their early blessings on his name.

Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
the prisoners leap to lose their chains;
the weary find eternal rest,
and all who suffer want are blest.

Let every creature rise and bring peculiar honours to our King, angels descend with songs again,
and earth repeat the loud Amen.

Text: Isaac Watts, alt.; Music: John Hatton.

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,

People to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

During the Gloria, children are invited to gather at the chancel steps before proceeding to St. George's Chapel for Godly Play; they will return at the offertory.

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

God of the prophets you shame the strong through the weakness of love and turn upside down the wisdom of the world: may your blessing dwell revolution be our joy and our reward; through Jesus Christ, the power of God.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

The First Reading

Micah 6: 1-8

Reader Hear what the LORD says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me!
For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of slavery; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1: 18-31

Reader For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart." Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength. Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are, so that no one might boast in the presence of God. He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, in order that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 5: 1-12

Gospeller The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ.
People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Apostles' Creed

Presider Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,
All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Presider To God who hears our cries and our cares, let us lift our hearts and voices in prayer for the church, the world, and all in need saying, "In your mercy, Lord, hear our prayer."

Intercessor In your mercy, People Lord, hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider Incarnate Word, Lord of all, hear the prayers of your people and strengthen us to do your will. In your name we pray.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites us to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The Peace

We offer each other a sign of peace, as you feel comfortable.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken to support the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Fulda (Walton)

All

Where cross the crowded ways of life, where cries of tribe and race resound, amid the noise of selfish strife,
O Christ, your word of love is found.

In haunts of wretchedness and need,
on shadowed thresholds, dark with fears,
from paths where hide the lures of greed,
we catch the vision of your tears.

From children's wounded helplessness, from men and women's grief and toil,
from famished souls, from sorrow's stress, your heart has never known recoil.

The cup of water given for you still holds the freshness of your grace; yet long the multitudes to view the strong compassion of your face.

O Jesus, from the mountainside make haste to heal these hearts of pain.
Among these restless throngs abide;
O tread the city's streets again,

till all the world shall learn your love, and follow where your feet have trod;
till glorious from your heaven above shall come the city of our God.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider God of steadfast love, may our offering this day, by the power of your Holy Spirit, renew us for your service. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Holy God, Lover of creation, we give you thanks and praise for in the ocean of your steadfast love you bear us and place the song of your Spirit in our hearts.

When we turn from your love and defile the earth, you do not abandon us. Your Spirit speaks through Huldah and Micah, through prophets, sages, and saints in every age, to confront our sin and reveal the vision of your new creation.

Joining in the song of the universe we proclaim your glory singing:

Sanctus & Benedictus

mf Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of po - wer and might, Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. f Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Presider Gracious God, in the fullness of time you sent Jesus the Christ to share our fragile humanity. Through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection you open the path from brokenness to health, from fear to trust, from pride and conceit to reverence for you.

Rejected by a world that could not bear the Gospel of life, Jesus knew death was near. His head anointed for burial by an unknown woman, Jesus gathered together those who loved him. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it and gave it to his friends, saying, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave you thanks, and said "Drink this all of you, this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

And now we gather at this table in response to his commandment, to share the bread and cup of Christ's undying love, and to proclaim our faith.

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Breathe your Holy Spirit, the wisdom of the universe, upon these gifts that we bring to you: this bread, this cup, ourselves, our souls and bodies, that we may be signs of your love for all the world and ministers of your transforming purpose.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, Creator of all, and we bless your holy name for ever.

People Amen.

Communion Hymn

Tune: O Waly, Waly

All Lord, make us servants of your peace:
 where there is hate, may we sow love;
 where there is hurt, may we forgive;
 where there is strife, may we make one.

Where all is doubt, may we sow faith;
where all is gloom, may we sow hope;
where all is night, may we sow light;
where all is tears, may we sow joy.

Jesus, our Lord, may we not seek to be consoled, but to console, nor look to understanding hearts,
but look for hearts to understand.

May we not look for love's return, but seek to love unselfishly, for in our giving we receive,
and in forgiving are forgiven.

Dying we live, and are reborn through death's dark night to endless day; Lord, make us servants of your peace to wake at last in heaven's light.

Hymn

Tune: Paderborn

All The kingdom of God is justice and joy, for Jesus restores what sin would destroy.
God's power and glory in Jesus we know,
and here and hereafter the kingdom shall grow.

The kingdom of God is mercy and grace;
the captives are freed, the sinners find place.
The outcasts are welcomed God's banquet to share, and hope is awakened in place of despair.

The kingdom of God is challenge and choice:
believe the good news, repent and rejoice!
His love for us sinners brought Christ to his cross, our crisis of judgement for gain and for loss.

God's kingdom is come, the gift and the goal,
in Jesus begun, in heaven made whole.
The heirs of the kingdom shall answer his call,
and all things cry "Glory!" to God All-in-All.

Retirement Celebration for Emile Rhineland

One of the great truths (and gifts) of parish ministry is that we always are in the business of saying hello and saying farewell.

We welcome newcomers and we say goodbye to those who are leaving us. We always say 'adieu' – until we meet again, never goodbye. And so it is with heavy hearts but hearts that are full of gratitude that we 'launch' our dear Emile into retirement this week.

As one of the newest 'newcomers' to the Cathedral community, I must say that, rarely, if ever, in my experience in ministry, have I encountered a place where I have been so well 'taken care of' – and so much of that, for all of us here, is because of Emile. He is our gentle giant – taking care of so much – always smiling, always a word of welcome, always knowing just what we need. He is an expert liturgist, a caring pastor, a skilled and experienced technical expert, and a dear friend.

How much we will miss his ministry and his kindness. Think of all the stories he could tell.... imagine the number of missals, of hangings and vesture, of communion vessels, or repaired light switches, of moved furniture, of repaired microphones, of mysteries solved! In the details of his dedicated work among us, he has indeed been the hands and feet of our loving God!

And so, with deep thanks and with so much joy, we wish him well in his retirement. We will find his shoes very hard to fill, and we look forward to welcoming him back when he comes to visit. We promise him a comfortable pew, with no responsibilities. We will take care of him just as he has so dearly taken care of us!

Well done, Emile. Our abundant blessings and deep affection go with you.

Interim Dean & Priest in Charge
