

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Patronal Festival – St. James the Apostle

July 23, 2023

Procession & Choral Eucharist at 10:00am

*The Cathedral Church of St. James
Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada*

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

The Station at the Font

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

We thank you God and Author of Life for the gift of water.
From the stirring sea you called forth your servant James.

People Open our hearts to answer your call.

Presider With courage, James followed the footsteps of Christ.

People Consecrate us to the way of Life.

Presider God who called a common fisherman to participate in your healing mission, we ask you to make the common holy. Sanctify this water by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those outwardly anointed might be inwardly devoted to follow after you; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People Amen.

The Procession

Deacon Let us go forth in peace. Alleluia!

People In the name of Christ. Alleluia!

The procession moves through the nave and the presider sprinkles the congregation with water.

Processional Hymn

Tune: Sine Nomine

For all the saints who from their labours rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Oh may thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold, fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
and win with them the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
and hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day—
the saints triumphant rise in bright array:
the King of glory passes on his way.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
through gates of pearl, streams in the countless host,
singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, we remember today your servant James, the first apostle to give his life for faith in Jesus Christ. Pour out on all your people that spirit of self-denying service which is the mark of true leadership. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Jeremiah 45: 1-5

Reader The word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah: Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: You said, “Woe is me! The Lord has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.” Thus you shall say to him, “Thus says the Lord: I am going to break down what I have built, and pluck up what I have planted – that is, the whole land. And you, do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for I am going to bring disaster upon all flesh, says the Lord; but I will give you your life as a prize of war in every place to which you may go.”

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Psalm 7: 1-10 – Chant by Robert Cooke

Choir O Lord my God, in you I take refuge;
save me from all who pursue me, and deliver me,
Lest they rend me like a lion and tear me in pieces
while there is no one to help me.
O Lord my God, if I have done these things:
if there is any wickedness in my hands,
If I have repaid my friend with evil,
or plundered my enemy without a cause,
Then let my enemy pursue me and overtake me, trample my life to the ground, and lay my honour in the dust.

Rise up, O Lord, in your wrath;
 lift yourself up against the fury of my enemies.
 Awaken, my God, the judgement that you have commanded.
 Let the assembly of the peoples gather round you;
 be seated high above them: O Lord, judge the nations.
 Give judgement for me according to my righteousness, O Lord,
 and according to the innocence that is in me.
 Let the malice of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous;
 for you test the mind and heart, O righteous God.
 God is my shield that is over me;
 he saves the true of heart.

The Second Reading

Acts 11: 27 – 12: 3

Reader At that time prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there would be a severe famine over all the world; and this took place during the reign of Claudius. The disciples determined that according to their ability, each would send relief to the believers living in Judea; this they did, sending it to the elders by Barnabas and Saul. About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.)

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia – O'Carroll and Walker

Choir Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

People Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Choir I chose you and appointed you, says the Lord;
 that you should go and bear fruit, fruit that will last.

People Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 20: 20-28

Gospeller The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller The mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Jesus with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favour of him. And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom." But Jesus answered, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to him, "We are able." He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father." When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers. But Jesus called them to him and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave; just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Apostles' Creed

Presider Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Presider Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Presider Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in God the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Presider Let us pray for the peace and welfare of the world, for the witness and work of the Church, for ourselves, and for the unity of all peoples, saying “Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer”.

Intercessor Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider God of love, you promised through our Lord Jesus Christ to hear us when we pray in faith. Hear our prayers this day. In your mercy, have mercy upon your people, pardon and deliver them from all their sins, confirm and strengthen them in all goodness, and keep them in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The Peace

We offer each other a sign of peace, as you feel comfortable.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken to support the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Lobe Den Herren

Thanks be to God for his saints of each past generation, one with us still in one body, one great congregation;
with them proclaim Jesus for ever the same,
Author of life and salvation.

Thanks be to God for his blessings which daily surround us;
glory to Christ the Redeemer who sought us and found us,
who from the grave rose, the almighty to save,
breaking the fetters that bound us.

Thanks be to God for the years that are yet in his keeping,
trusting each day to the care of a Father unsleeping,
on to the end, Christ our companion and friend,
joy at the last for our weeping.

Thanks be to God who has called us and daily defends us, who with the Son and the Spirit unchanging befriends us;
now in that Name, Jesus for ever the same,
forth to his service he sends us.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Lord God, today we honour your servant James, the first apostle to share the cup of suffering and death. Receive our offering of praise and thanksgiving, and renew us in the service of your Son Jesus Christ, who came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. We ask this in his name.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; we give you thanks and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord, who after his resurrection sent forth apostles to preach the gospel and to teach all nations, and promised to be with them always, even to the end of the ages. Therefore with angels and archangels and all your holy people, we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Choir Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Presider We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, Father, according to his command,

People we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Presider and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

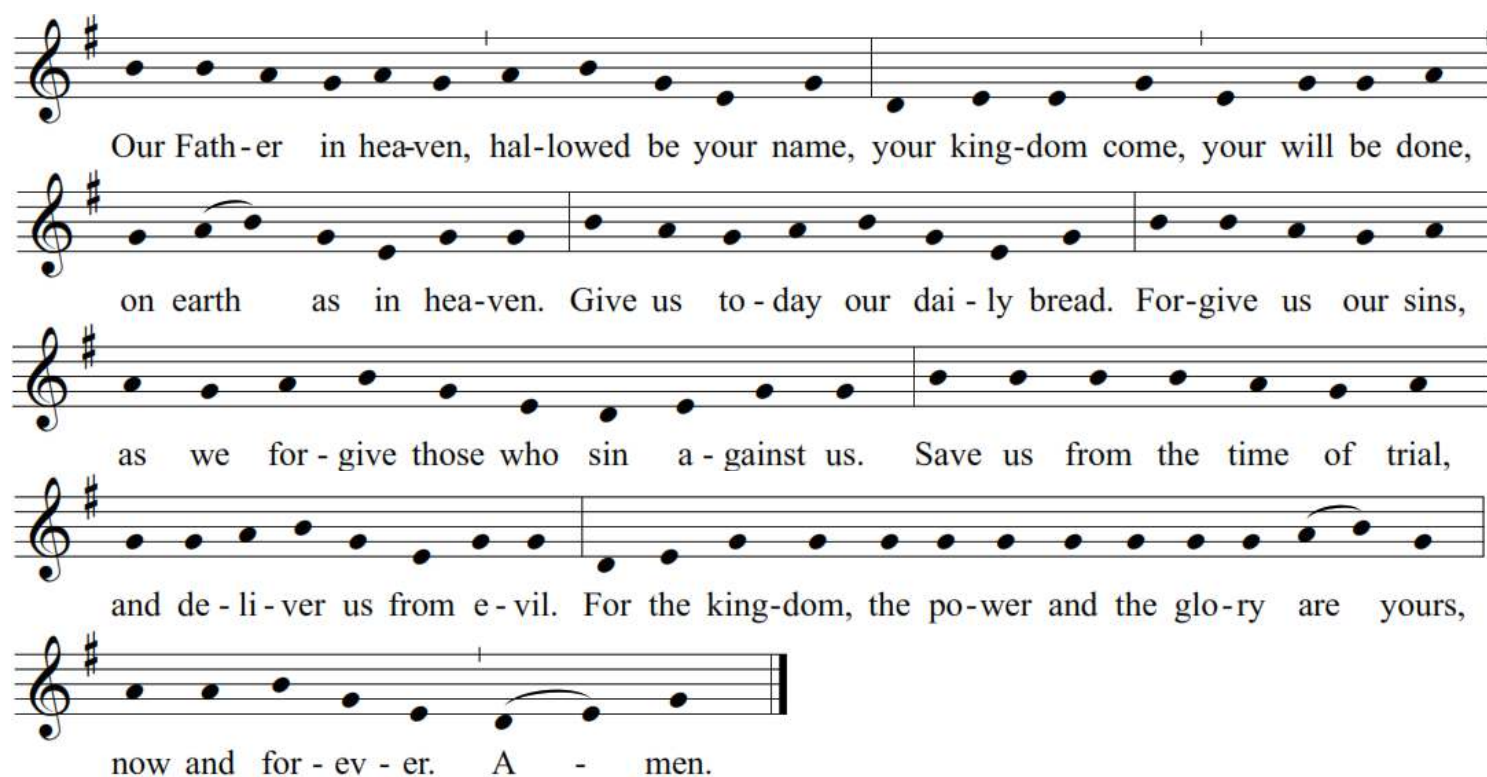

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

McNeil Robinson

Presider As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

Our Fath-er in hea-ven, hal-lowed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread. For-give us our sins, as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of trial, and de-li-ver us from e-vil. For the king-dom, the po-wer and the glo-ry are yours, now and for-ev-er. A - men.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The Communion

Presider The gifts of God for the People of God.

People Thanks be to God.

Agnus Dei

Choir Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.

All are welcome to receive Holy Communion or a blessing. If you choose not to receive communion, simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate this to the priest.

For those requiring gluten-free hosts or not wanting to walk up the chancel steps, please go to the Lady Chapel. It is not permitted to dip the bread in the wine for health reasons.

Prayers for healing and anointing are available at St. John's Altar (on the left).

Communion Hymn

Tune: Servant Song

Sister, let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey, fellow travellers on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christlight for you in the nighttime of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you, speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping; when you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven, we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together of Christ's love and agony.

Brother, let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.

Communion Hymn

Tune: Darwall

You holy angels bright who wait at God's right hand, or through the realms of light fly at your Lord's command:
assist our song, or else the theme too high will seem for mortal tongue.

You faithful souls at rest, who ran this earthly race,
and now from sin released behold your Saviour's face:
his praises sound and all unite in sweet delight to see him crowned.

You saints who serve below, adore your heavenly King,
and as you onward go your joyful anthems sing:
take what he gives and praise him still through good and ill, who ever lives.

So take, my soul, your part; triumph in God above, and with a well-tuned heart sing out your songs of love:
with joy proclaim through all your days in ceaseless praise his glorious name!

Text: Richard Baxter; Music: John Darwall.

Motet

Behold the Tabernacle of God

Sir William Harris

Choir

Behold, the tabernacle of God is with you,
and the Spirit God dwelleth within you.
For the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.
For the love of whom ye do this day celebrate the joys of the temple with a season of festivity. Alleluia.

Prayer after Communion

Presider

Let us pray.

Father, we have eaten the bread of your table and drunk from the cup of your kingdom. Teach us, we pray, the way of service that in compassion and humility we may reflect the glory of Jesus Christ, the Son of man and Son of God, our Lord.

People

Amen.

Presider

Glory to God,

People

whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People Amen.

Recessional Hymn

Tune: Laudate Dominum

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
and publish abroad his wonderful name;
the name all-victorious of Jesus extol:
his kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
and still he is nigh, his presence we have;
the great congregation his triumph shall sing,
ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.

Salvation to God who sits on the throne!
Let all cry aloud, and honour the Son.
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore, and give him his right:
all glory and power, all wisdom and might,
and honour and blessing, with angels above,
and thanks never-ceasing, and infinite love.

St. James, the Apostle

“St. James The Greater”

By Constantina Wood (2011)

Today marks the Sunday on which we keep our Patronal Feast. The actual day is July 25 – interestingly situated between the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene (July 22) and St. Anne (July 26). The church keeps holy days and remembers the great heroes and heroines of our past – James, Mary Magdalene, and Anne bright stars among them. While we never know as many biographical details as we would like, Saint James the Apostle is presented in the Gospels as ‘the brother of John’. He is also called James ‘the Greater’ in order to distinguish him from two other New Testament ‘James’. Like other disciples, he was called from his life as a Galilean fisherman to follow Jesus. He is one of the three disciples chosen by Jesus to witness the Transfiguration. He figures highly in gospel healing accounts, and the agony of the garden of Gethsemane.

In the Book of Acts we read of Herod's persecution of the ‘new’ church and the beheading of James, making him the first of the apostles to suffer death for the sake of Christ.

James is one of the best-loved saints of the Spanish people; a legend claims that the body of James was miraculously transported across the Mediterranean in a stone coffin and rested at Compostela in Spain. His shrine has become one of the great centres of pilgrimage and to this day remains a much-visited shrine, and the destination of the Camino de Compostela, which so many are now walking. (With gratitude to the late Dr. Stephen Reynolds and his book: ‘For All the Saints’)

And so, our Cathedral is dedicated to the Patronage of this early saint – we don't know exactly how or when the name ‘St. James’ came to be for this church – it was long before it was a Cathedral; indeed, long before the Diocese of Toronto existed. The naming of parishes has always been the prerogative of the Bishop, so it was probably Bishop Jacob Mountain, Bishop of Quebec (of which diocese we were then part) who named us – there is evidence that by early in the 1800's, the name St James was being used. And St. James we have remained – first as a parish church and then as the Cathedral for the Diocese of Toronto.

Celebrating our Patronal Festival gives us a real chance to remember our forebears and benefactors, to give thanks for the wondrous ministry that has taken place here for so long, and to commit ourselves anew to the exciting work which is on our doorstep, and which lies in our future.

Drop-In from 1:30pm to 3:30pm.

Our Cathedral opens its doors for guests to come in for a meal in Snell Hall.

SUNDAY:

Our Sunday Children's Program continues at 10:00am.

Coffee Hour follows the 10:00am service.

Road Closures:

Many of you who drive to church will be aware that summer road closures have begun. For more information, visit the City of Toronto website: toronto.ca/services-payments/streets-parking-transportation/road-restrictions-closures/
