March 24, 2024

Choral Eucharist at 11:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews (also called Israelites) of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

The seasons of the church year offer particular readings, prayers and music that give shape and character to our worship. The format of the Gathering of the Community and the use of the Apostles' Creed during Lent are part of the catechetical journey of candidates for baptism at the Easter Vigil and for all of us as we prepare to renew our Baptism Covenant.

Welcome! We are glad you have joined us for worship this morning.

Introit Hosanna to the Son of David

Music: Orlando Gibbons

Choir

Hosanna to the Son of David.

Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna.

Thou that sittest in the highest heavens.

Hosanna in excelsis Deo.

Text: Matthew 21:9;

Presider

Dear friends in Christ, during Lent we have been preparing for the celebration of our Lord's paschal mystery. On this day our Lord Jesus Christ entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph. The people welcomed him with palms and shouts of praise, but the path before him led to self-giving, suffering, and death. Today we greet him as our King, although we know his crown is thorns and his throne a cross. We follow him this week from the glory of the palms to the glory of the resurrection by way of the dark road of suffering and death. United with him in his suffering on the cross, may we share his resurrection and new life.

Presider

Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with your help, Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy into the celebration of those mighty acts whereby you give us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People

Amen.

The Gospel of the Palms

Mark 11:1-11

Deacon The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Deacon When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, ‘Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, “Why are you doing this?” just say this, “The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.”’ They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, ‘What are you doing, untying the colt?’ They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

‘Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!’

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Deacon The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Blessing of the Palms

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Please raise your palm crosses during the blessing.

Presider It is right to praise you, almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. The Hebrews acclaimed Jesus as Messiah and King with palm branches in their hands, crying, “Hosanna in the highest.” Bless and sanctify these branches and crosses of palm, O Lord. May we who carry them go forth to meet Christ and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Procession

Deacon Let us go forth in peace.

People In the name of Christ. Amen.

Hymn

Tune: St. Theodulph

All glory, laud and honour to thee, Redeemer, King, to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

Thou art the King of Israel, thou David’s royal Son, who in the Lord’s name comest, the King and blessed one.
All glory, laud and honour to thee, Redeemer, King...

The company of angels are praising thee on high,
and we with all creation in chorus make reply.
All glory, laud and honour to thee, Redeemer, King...

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
our praise and prayer and anthems before thee we present.
All glory, laud and honour to thee, Redeemer, King...

To thee before thy Passion they sang their hymns of praise;
to thee now high exalted our melody we raise.
All glory, laud and honour to thee, Redeemer, King...

Thou didst accept their praises; accept the praise we bring,
who in all good delightest, thou good and gracious King:
All glory, laud and honour to thee, Redeemer, King...

Text: Theodulph of Orleans, tr. John Mason Neale, alt.; Music: Melody Melchior Teschner.

Station During the Procession

Presider Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Hosanna in the highest.

Presider

Let us pray.

Holy and immortal God, as we enter into this holy week turn our hearts to Jerusalem, so that, united with Christ and all the faithful, we may enter the city not made with hands, your promised realm of justice and peace, eternal from age to age.

People

Amen.

Hymn

Tune: Luckington

All

Let all the world in every corner sing,
"My God and King!"

The heav'ns are not too high,
God's praise may thither fly;
the earth is not too low,
God's praises there may grow.

Let all the world in every corner sing,
"My God and King!"

Let all the world in every corner sing,
"My God and King!"

The church with psalms must shout:
no door can keep them out.
But, more than all, the heart must bear the longest part.

Let all the world in every corner sing,
"My God and King!"

Let every land resound from shore to shore:
"Jesus is Lord."

Eternity's too short
to praise him as we ought.
A fleeting breath's too long unless expressed in song.

Let every land resound from shore to shore:
"Jesus is Lord."

Author: George Herbert

Collect of the Day

Presider

Let us pray.

Holy and immortal God, open our hearts to the Blessed One, so that we may enter the gates of your justice, confessing in our words and in our deeds that Jesus is Lord, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Isaiah 50: 4-9a

Reader The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens – wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Psalm 31: 9-16 chant by C. H. Lloyd

Choir Have mercy on me, Lord, for I am in trouble;
my eye is consumed with sorrow, my soul and my body also.
For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing;
my strength fails me because of my affliction,
and my bones are consumed.
I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbours, an object of dread to my acquaintances;
when they see me in the street they flee from me.
I am forgotten like one that is dead, out of mind;
I have become like a broken vessel.
For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is on every side;
they scheme together against me, and plot to take my life.
But my trust is in you, O Lord.
I have said, 'You are my God.
'My times are in your hand;
deliver me from the hand of my enemies,

Intercessor Lord in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider We lift our prayers to you, O God, trusting in your steadfast grace and mercy and your promise to renew your whole creation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

People Amen.

The Peace

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken to support the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Love Unknown

All My song is love unknown, my Saviour's love to me;
love to the loveless shown, that they might lovely be,
O who am I that for my sake my Lord should take frail flesh, and die?
He came from his blest throne salvation to bestow;
but all made strange, and none the longed for Christ would know:
but oh my friend, my friend indeed, who at my need his life did spend?
Sometimes they strew his way, and his sweet praises sing, resounding all the day hosannas to their King;
then "Crucify!" is all their breath, and for his death they thirst and cry.

Why, what has my Lord done? What makes this rage and spite?
He made the lame to run, he gave the blind their sight.
Sweet injuries! Yet they at these themselves displease, and 'gainst him rise.
They rise and needs will have my dear Lord made away;
a murderer they save, the Prince of life they slay.
Yet cheerful he to suffering goes, that he his foes from thence might free.
Here might I stay and sing, no story so divine;
never was love, dear King, never was grief like thine!
This is my friend, in whose sweet praise I all my days could gladly spend.

Text: Samuel Crossman, alt.; Music: John N. Ireland.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Gracious God, the suffering and death of Jesus, your only Son, makes us pleasing in your sight. Alone we can do nothing, but through his sacrifice, may we receive your love and mercy.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them unto the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

Presider It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God, creator and preserver of all things.

For the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ, both God and Man; who did humble himself, even to the death upon the Cross for us sinners, who lay in darkness and the shadow of death; that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious name; evermore praising thee and saying:

Sanctus & Benedictus

Choir Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Presider All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, who didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again; who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory. And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the body and blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

People We praise thee, we bless thee, we thank thee, and we pray to thee, Lord our God.

Presider And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this holy communion may worthily receive the most precious body and blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord; By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end.

People Amen.

Where charity and love are, God is there.
Christ's love has gathered us into one.
Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him.
Let us fear, and let us love the living God.
And may we love each other with a sincere heart.

Communion Hymn

Tune: Franconia

All Christ bids us break the bread and share the cup he gave,
in token of the blood he shed for those he died to save.

It was for us he came, to bear, by human birth,
a crown of thorn, a cross of shame, for every child of earth.

The Saviour crucified in glory rose again:
we here remember him who died, ascended now to reign.

Our hearts his word obey, in thankfulness and love:
we feed on Christ by faith today and feast with him above.

O Christ, once lifted up that we might be forgiven,
we take the bread and drink the cup and share the life of heaven.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary,
who having truly suffered, was sacrificed

May it be for us a foretaste of the Heavenly banquet in the trial of death.

O sweet, O holy, O Jesus, son of Mary.

Hymn

Tune: Winchester New

All Ride on, ride on in majesty
as all the crowds 'Hosanna!' cry:
through waving branches slowly ride,
O Saviour, to be crucified.

Ride on, ride on in majesty,
in lowly pomp ride on to die:
O Christ, your triumph now begin with captured death, and conquered sin!

Ride on, ride on in majesty
the angel armies of the sky
look down with sad and wondering eyes to see the approaching sacrifice.

Ride on, ride on in majesty,
the last and fiercest foe defy:
the Father on his sapphire throne awaits his own anointed Son.

Ride on, ride on in majesty,
in lowly pomp ride on to die:
bow your meek head to mortal pain,
then take, O God, your power and reign!
