Choral Evensong at 4:30pm

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Psalm 19      Chants by Thomas Attwood Walmisley & Martin Luther

Choir      The heavens are telling the glory of God and the firmament proclaims his handiwork.
One day pours out its song to another and one night unfolds knowledge to another.
They have neither speech nor language and their voices are not heard, Yet their sound has gone out into all lands and their words to the ends of the world.
In them has he set a tabernacle for the sun,
                  that comes forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber and rejoices as a champion to run his course.

It goes forth from the end of the heavens and runs to the very end again,
and there is nothing hidden from its heat.
The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul;
the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the simple.
The statutes of the Lord are right and rejoice the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is pure and gives light to the eyes.
The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever;
the judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, sweeter also than honey, dripping from the honeycomb.
By them also is your servant taught and in keeping them there is great reward.
Who can tell how often they offend?
O cleanse me from my secret faults!
Keep your servant also from presumptuous sins lest they get dominion over me;
so shall I be undefiled, and innocent of great offence.
Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

Psalm 46

Choir

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble;
Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved,
and though the mountains tremble in the heart of the sea;
Though the waters rage and swell,
and though the mountains quake at the towering seas.
There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy place of the dwelling of the Most High.
God is in the midst of her; therefore shall she not be removed;
God shall help her at the break of day.
The nations are in uproar and the kingdoms are shaken,
but God utters his voice and the earth shall melt away.
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
Come and behold the works of the Lord,
what destruction he has wrought upon the earth.

He makes wars to cease in all the world;
he shatters the bow and snaps the spear and burns the chariots in the fire.

‘Be still, and know that I am God;

I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth.’

The Lord of hosts is with us;

the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Amen.

First Lesson

Please be seated.

Judges 11: 1-11, 29-40

Reader

Now Jephthah the Gileadite, the son of a prostitute, was a mighty warrior. Gilead was the father of Jephthah. Gilead’s wife also bore him sons; and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Jephthah away, saying to him, ‘You shall not inherit anything in our father’s house; for you are the son of another woman.’ Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Outlaws collected around Jephthah and went raiding with him.

After a time the Ammonites made war against Israel. And when the Ammonites made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob. They said to Jephthah, ‘Come and be our commander, so that we may fight with the Ammonites.’ But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, ‘Are you not the very ones who rejected me and drove me out of my father’s house? So why do you come to me now when you are in trouble?’ The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, ‘Nevertheless, we have now turned back to you, so that you may go with us and fight with the Ammonites, and become head over us, over all the inhabitants of Gilead.’ Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, ‘If you bring me home again to fight with the Ammonites, and the Lord gives them over to me, I will be your head.’ And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, ‘The Lord will be witness between us; we will surely do as you say.’ So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the Lord at Mizpah.

Then the spirit of the Lord came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh. He passed on to Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed on to the Ammonites. And Jephthah made a vow to the Lord, and said, 'If you will give the Ammonites into my hand, then whoever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return victorious from the Ammonites, shall be the Lord's, to be offered up by me as a burnt-offering.' So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them; and the Lord gave them into his hand. He inflicted a massive defeat on them from Aroer to the neighbourhood of Minnith, twenty towns, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the Ammonites were subdued before the people of Israel.

Then Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah; and there was his daughter coming out to meet him with timbrels and with dancing. She was his only child; he had no son or daughter except her. When he saw her, he tore his clothes, and said, 'Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low; you have become the cause of great trouble to me. For I have opened my mouth to the Lord, and I cannot take back my vow.' She said to him, 'My father, if you have opened your mouth to the Lord, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, now that the Lord has given you vengeance against your enemies, the Ammonites.' And she said to her father, 'Let this thing be done for me: Grant me two months, so that I may go and wander on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, my companions and I.' 'Go,' he said and sent her away for two months. So she departed, she and her companions, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains. At the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to the vow he had made. She had never slept with a man. So there arose an Israelite custom that for four days every year the daughters of Israel would go out to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

People      Thanks be to God.

Magnificat      Please stand, as you are able.      Evening Service in f minor – Derek Holman

Choir      My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Second Lesson

Please be seated.

John 3: 22-36

Reader

After this Jesus and his disciples went into the Judean countryside, and he spent some time there with them and baptized. John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim because water was abundant there; and people kept coming and were being baptized— John, of course, had not yet been thrown into prison.

Now a discussion about purification arose between John's disciples and a Jew. They came to John and said to him, 'Rabbi, the one who was with you across the Jordan, to whom you testified, here he is baptizing, and all are going to him.' John answered, 'No one can receive anything except what has been given from heaven. You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, "I am not the Messiah, but I have been sent ahead of him." He who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice. For this reason my joy has been fulfilled. He must increase, but I must decrease.' The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things. The one who comes from heaven is above all. He testifies to what he has seen and heard, yet no one accepts his testimony. Whoever has accepted his testimony has certified this, that God is true. He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure. The Father loves the Son and has placed all things in his hands. Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever disobeys the Son will not see life, but must endure God's wrath.

Tune: The Vicar of Bray

Hymn at the Collection

Sing praise to God on mountain tops and in earth's lowest places, from blue lagoon to polar waste,
from ocean to oasis.

No random rock produced this world
but God's own will and wonder.
Thus hills rejoice and valleys sing and clouds concur with thunder.

Sing praise to God where grasses grow and flowers display their beauty, where Nature weaves her myriad web through love as much as duty.

The seasons in their cycle speak of earth's complete provision.
Let nothing mock inherent good nor treat it with derision.

Sing praise to God where fishes swim and birds fly in formation, where animals of every kind diversify creation.

All life that finds its home on earth is meant to be respected.
Let nothing threaten, for base ends,
what God through grace perfected.

Sing praise to God where humankind its majesty embraces,
where different races, creeds and tongues distinguish different faces.
God's image in each child of earth shall never pale or perish.
So treat with love each human soul and thus God's goodness cherish.

You were asking...making the sign of the cross

Sitting, standing, kneeling, speaking, and singing – our bodies are active in worship! A great example of this is making the sign of the cross or “crossing oneself”. This is a ritual practice that dates back to early Christianity. It is still widely practiced in Roman Catholic, Anglo-Catholic, and Lutheran traditions. Making the sign of the cross on a person’s forehead is a gesture we often connect to Baptism, the Imposition of Ashes on Ash Wednesday, and Anointing. We hear these words as the cross is traced on the forehead: I sign you with the cross and mark you as Christ’s own forever; remember you are dust and to dust you shall return; through this holy anointing may our Lord in his love and mercy uphold you by the grace and power of the Holy Spirit. Making the sign of the cross is a declaration of faith in God and a reminder that we belong to Christ. It is a faithful response and a sign of the Holy Spirit’s healing, liberating presence.

And there are moments in our celebration of the Eucharist when you might notice someone near you making the sign of the cross. Some examples:

- Speaking or hearing the Triune name of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;
- At the announcement of the Holy Gospel (three small crosses are made, one each over the forehead, lips, and heart);
- At the words, "resurrection of the dead" in the Creed;
- At the Absolution;
- At the words, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord," following the Sanctus (Holy, holy, holy) in the Eucharistic Prayer;
- Before receiving Holy Communion;
- At the Blessing at the conclusion of the service.

We trace the sign of the cross over our body with our right hand (or finger) starting with our forehead, making a vertical line to our chest and then a horizontal line from left to right. Making the sign of the cross is for many people an act of worship - a profession of faith and a simple, powerful prayer. And while it is a common practice, I view it as all may, some should, none must!

Announcement from Interim Dean Peter Wall

To the Cathedral Community of St. James Cathedral,

It is with a very heavy heart that I write to tell you that Lisa Scapillato has submitted her resignation as Administrative Assistant, The Dean's Office, effective August 15.

Lisa has been a key member of the Cathedral staff, a highly valued colleague, and a devoted friend to so many for seven and a half years. As we in the office know, Lisa has forgotten more about how the Cathedral operates and 'is' than any of the rest of us will ever even know...

She has welcomed, trained, comforted, and rescued two Deans and an Interim Dean, and has done the work of two or three people cheerfully, creatively, effectively, and comprehensively, always with good cheer, a positive outlook, and immense professionalism. Our loss – deep as it will be – is her next employer's gain. We will have the opportunity over the next couple of days to appropriately bid her – not goodbye – but adieu. We do so with enormously grateful hearts and all the best wishes that we can.

I urge members of the broader Cathedral community to take a chance to wish Lisa every good wish and to remember her in your prayers.

With deep appreciation,

Peter Wall, Interim Dean - St. James Cathedral
