

The Cathedral Church of St. James

The Epiphany of the Lord

Epiphany Sunday - January 7, 2024
Sung Eucharist at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James
Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews (also called Israelites) of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Welcome & Announcements

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,

People to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

During the Hymn, children are invited to gather at the chancel steps before proceeding to the Library in the Cathedral Centre for Sunday School; they will return at the offertory.

Hymn

Tune: Dix

As with gladness men of old did the guiding star behold;
as with joy they hailed its light, leading onward, beaming bright;
so, most gracious Lord, may we evermore be led to thee.

As with joyful steps they sped,
Saviour, to thy lowly bed, there to bend the knee before thee, whom heaven and earth adore;
so may we with willing feet ever seek thy mercy seat.

As they offered gifts most rare at that cradle rude and bare, so may we with joyful song, raising voices pure and strong,
all our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee our heavenly king.

In the heavenly country bright need they no created light:
thou its light, its joy, its crown, thou its sun which goes not down;
there for ever may we sing alleluias to our king.

Text: William Chatterton Dix, alt.; Music: Konrad Kocher.

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, you revealed the incarnation of your Son by the brilliant shining of a star. Shine the light of your justice in our hearts and over all lands, and accept our lives as the treasure we offer in your praise and for your service; through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Isaiah 60:1-6

Reader Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please remain seated.

Tune: St. Botolph

Psalm 72 (Verse 1-7, 10-14)

O God, confer Your righteousness upon the royal heir;

Let justice be his sovereign robe, and truth his crown to wear.

The king will judge with equity
the people You hold dear, Dispensing justice to the poor and those who live in fear.

From rivers born in mountain springs, prosperity will flow;

The hills will bloom with peace and truth, and righteousness will grow.

The king will aid the destitute and put their foes to flight; He'll save the children of the poor and guard them by his might.

O God, may You be glorified as long as stars endure, Until the sun and moon grow dark,
for ages evermore.

The Second Reading

Ephesians 3:1-12

Reader This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given to me for you, and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the Gentiles have become fellow-heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of his power. Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 2:1-12

Gospeller The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
Gospeller In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.' When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

“And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.”

Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, ‘Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.’ When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ.
People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Nicene Creed

Presider Let us confess the faith, as we say,
All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.

He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Presider Gathered in God's loving presence let us offer our prayers for the Church and the world, saying Lord of Glory, hear our prayer.

Pause

Intercessor Lord of Glory, People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider O God of radiant light, your love illumines our hopes before we know them, and our needs before we ask. Kindle your flame within us, that in our prayers and service, we may know and share your transforming presence at work in the world. All this we ask through Jesus Christ, Your son, the light of the world.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in

All eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Peace

We offer each other a sign of peace, as you feel comfortable.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken to support the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Kingsfold

Rise up and shine! Your light has come;
God's glory breaks like dawn.
For though the earth be cloaked in night and gloom shrouds everyone, yet over you the Lord will rise,
with glory gleaming clear, till nations turn to seek your light and humbled kings draw near.

Fling wide your gates, both day and night;
no more keep watch or guard.
You will be called God's holy hill,
the city of the Lord.
No sound of strife will plague your land,
nor harm besiege your ways;
"Salvation" will you name your walls,
and all your portals "Praise".

No more will you implore the sun to shed by day its light, nor will you need the changeful moon to glisten through the night.
Your glory then will be your God, whose light will never cease.
Rise up and shine! Your light has come to give you joy and peace.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Gracious God, accept the offering of your Church, the hearts of your people joined in praise and thanksgiving, in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; you have revealed your eternal plan of salvation, and have shown your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of all peoples. Therefore with angels and archangels we raise our voices in joyful praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly God of power and might, Hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry Ho-san-na in the high-est

Presider

We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, Father, according to his command,

People

we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Presider

and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

McNeil Robinson

Presider As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

Our Fath-er in hea-ven, hal-lowed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread. For-give us our sins, as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of trial,

Communion Hymn

John Bell

In love you summon, in love I follow, living today for your tomorrow, Christ to release me, Christ to enfold me, Christ to restrain me, Christ to uphold me.

Communion Hymn

Tune: Here is Bread

Here is bread, here is wine,
Christ is with us—he is with us;
break the bread, drink the wine—
Christ is with us here.

Here is grace, here is peace,
Christ is with us—he is with us;
know his grace, find his peace—feast on Jesus here.

*In this bread there is healing, in this cup there's life forever;
in this moment, by the Spirit
Christ is with us here.*

Here we are, joined in one,
Christ is with us—he is with us;
we'll proclaim, till he comes—Jesus crucified. Refrain

Prayer after Communion

Presider Let us pray.

God of all the nations of the earth, guide us with your light. Help us to recognize Christ as he comes to us in this eucharist and in our neighbours. May we welcome him with love, for he is Lord now and for ever.

People Amen.

Presider Glory to God,

People whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider May the God of infinite goodness scatter the darkness of sin and brighten your hearts with holiness; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People Amen.

Hymn

Tune: the First Nowell

The first nowell, the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay, in fields where they lay keeping their sheep on a cold winter's night that was so deep.

*Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell,
born is the King of Israel.*

The star drew nigh to the northwest;
o'er Bethlehem it took its rest,
and there it did both stop and stay, right over the place where Jesus lay.

*Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell,
born is the King of Israel.*

Then entered in those wise men three,
 full reverently upon their knee, and offered there in his presence their gold and myrrh and frankincense.

*Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell,
 born is the King of Israel.*

Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord, who has made heaven and earth of nought, and with his blood salvation bought.

*Nowell, nowell, nowell, nowell,
 born is the King of Israel.*

Adieu, with deep gratitude.

The work of ordained ministry, particularly when it is centred on a particular community, such as this Cathedral, is an, at times, overwhelming privilege. The work of ministry is a huge gift – often challenging, always moving, sometimes complex and confounding, deeply comforting, and replete with opportunity and grace. And so, it has always been in my own ministry – I have been blessed beyond any comprehension or prediction.

What I have always been given in this vocation is a wonderful host of friends – a growing company of saints who have become imprinted on my soul and have welcomed me into their lives. I have constantly received so much more than I could ever have given. How fortunate I am!

So, thank you to so many – to colleagues and friends who form the dedicated and hard-working staff of this Cathedral. To Churchwardens and leaders whose generosity of time and skill is breathtaking. To singers and players who have delighted me over and over again and have brought me out of myself and nearer to God. To those who meet and plan, organize and work, to those who care so passionately for those whom we welcome into this place day by day and especially on Friday afternoons every week! To those who have read scripture, offered prayers, carried crosses and torches, censed God's people – such a committed group of souls. And to all those who have smiled, giggled, hugged, wept, forgiven, and put up with me! You are all friends – an unbreakable part of my life, and I will always be in your great debt.

To have been the Interim Dean of this Cathedral has been an enormous honour – one I will always hold in my heart, as I will hold each of you, with deep and abiding affection! The future here is bright and promising – what a joy it has been to be a part of preparing for that future.

May God's abundant and always present blessing be upon all who gather here.

My best,

The Very Rev'd Peter Wall
Interim Dean & Priest in Charge

STAY UP TO DATE

Holiday Celebrations at the Drop-In Post-COVID has allowed for the Christmas and New Year's celebrations to be brought back inside Snell Hall. It could not be the success it was without the generosity of the many donors and individual supporters. The guests expressed their thanks for the traditional Christmas with gifts and a turkey meal and the wonderful New Year's meal and treats provided by Biaggio Restaurant, their staff, and volunteers. Of course, nothing happens at the Drop-In without the dedicated Drop-In volunteers and those who volunteer at this special time of year. We would also like to thank The York Group, the volunteers who created and sold the 2023 Christmas Ornaments for the Drop-In, the chef Matt from Treeline Catering who cooked our turkeys, and Vinci for providing everything else for our Christmas celebration.

Today: Dean Peter's Farewell gift and celebration

Today we will say goodbye to the Very Reverend Peter Wall, our Interim Dean and Priest-in-Charge. If you would like to contribute to Dean Peter's farewell gift, you can make your gift at the Sunday offering - specifying it is for the Dean's farewell gift-, online through Tribute & Memorial Offerings indicating it is for the Dean's farewell gift - or drop it off at 65 Church St. Please join us today after the 11:00am service to celebrate Dean Peter and his ministry at St. James Cathedral.

Next Sunday, January 14: Installation of the New Dean of Toronto and Rector of St. James Cathedral

On January 14, 2024, we will welcome The Very Rev'd Dr. Stephen Hance. He will be installed as Dean of Toronto and Rector of St. James Cathedral on Sunday, January 14, 2024, and begin this ministry on January 15, 2024. Dean Stephen will become the 14th Rector of the Cathedral Church of St. James and the 9th Dean of Toronto. Please welcome him and Jacqui with warmth and joy as we all begin a new ministry together in this place.

Please join us after the 4:30pm service to welcome the New Dean.

PLAN AHEAD: 2024 AT THE CATHEDRAL

The Children's Program meets every Sunday
