

Presentation of the Lord

February 4, 2024

Sung Eucharist at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews (also called Israelites) of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Welcome & Announcements

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,

People to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

During the Hymn, children are invited to gather at the chancel steps before proceeding to the Library for Godly Play; they will return at the offertory.

Hymn

Tune: Irish

In Christ there is no east or west,
in him no pride of birth;
the family that God has blessed now spans the whole wide earth.

For God in Christ has made us one from every land and race;
has reconciled us through the Son,
and met us all with grace.

It is by grace we are assured that we belong to him:
the love we share in Christ our Lord,
the Spirit's work within.

So brothers, sisters, praise his name who died to set us free from sin, division, hate and shame, from spite and enmity!

In Christ there is no east or west
he breaks all barriers down:
by Christ redeemed, by Christ possessed in Christ we live as one.

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

God of love, you gave your Son to be a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel. With Simeon and Anna and all who hail redemption's happy dawn, may we sing your praise and proclaim salvation in Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh. Amen.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

The First Reading

Malachi 3:1-4

Reader See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Hymn (Psalm 84)

Tune: Wiltshire

O Lord, how lovely is the place
you dwell both day and night,
How beautiful Your temple shines,
how wonderful its light.
My soul yearns for Your temple courts,
for there my spirit longs;
My heart and flesh cry out for You while bursting forth with songs.
For like a sparrow needs a nest,
with chicks beneath its wing;
So I must have Your altar near,
O Lord, my God and King.
How happy those who know Your house and live there all their days;
For they will always worship You and ever sing Your praise.
And yes, how happy those whose strength is found in You alone;
Their hearts are set on Zion's hills to make Your glory known.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 2:14-18

Reader Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

People Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Cantor This is a light to reveal God to the nations and the glory of his people Israel.

The Holy Gospel*Luke 2:22-40*

Gospeller The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospeller When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, ‘Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord’), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, ‘a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.’

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

‘Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.’

And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, ‘This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.’

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.

Gospeller The Gospel of Christ.
People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Apostles' Creed

Presider Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,
All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Presider Gathered to celebrate the liberating love of God revealed to us in Jesus, the Christ, let us pray for the church, the world, and all creation saying, "God of grace and mercy, hear our prayer".

Pause

Intercessor God of grace and mercy,
People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider O God, who knows our needs before we ask, hear, and answer these prayers from our lips and the silent prayers of our hearts that we offer, in the name of our Liberating Lord, and in the power of your Life-giving Spirit.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

We offer each other a sign of peace, as you feel comfortable.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

An offering will now be taken to support the life and ministry of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: New Britain

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found:
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

Text: St. 1-4, John Newton; St. 5, A Collection of Sacred Ballads, Richmond, 1790; Music: Melody Columbian Harmony, Cincinnati, 1829; adapt. Edwin Othello Excell.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Almighty God, accept the joyful offering of your Church, and grant that your Son may shine in us as the light that lightens every nation. We ask this in the name of the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; you have revealed your eternal plan of salvation, and have shown your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of all peoples. Therefore with angels and archangels we raise our voices in joyful praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est.
Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Presider God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, you have brought us this far along the way. In times of bitterness you did not abandon us, but guided us into the path of love and light. In every age, you sent prophets to make known your loving will for all humanity. The cry of the poor has become your own cry; our hunger and thirst for justice is your own desire. In the fullness of time, you sent your chosen servant to preach good news to the afflicted, to break bread with the outcast and despised, and to ransom those in bondage to prejudice and sin.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke the bread, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

People Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Presider Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we await the day when Jesus shall return to free all the earth from the bonds of slavery and death. Come, Lord Jesus And let the church say, Amen.

People Amen.

Presider Send your Holy Spirit, our advocate, to fill the hearts of all who share this bread and cup with courage and wisdom to pursue love and justice in all the world. Come, Spirit of freedom. And let the church say, Amen.

People Amen.

Presider Join our prayers and prayers with your prophets and martyrs of every age, that, rejoicing in the hope of the resurrection, we might live in the freedom and hope of your Son. Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

McNeil Robinson

Presider As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

Our Fath-er in hea-ven, hal-lowed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread. For-give us our sins, as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of trial,

Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my work's in vain, but then the Holy Spirit
revives my soul again.

If you cannot preach like Peter,
if you cannot pray like Paul,
you can tell the love of Jesus and say, "He died for all."

Communion Hymn

Heal me, hands of Jesus, and search out all my pain;
restore my hope, remove my fear and bring me peace again.

Cleanse me, blood of Jesus,
take bitterness away;
let me forgive as one forgiven and bring me peace today.

Know me, mind of Jesus,
and show me all my sin;
dispel the memories of guilt, and bring me peace within.

Fill me, joy of Jesus:
anxiety shall cease
and heaven's serenity be mine, for Jesus brings me peace!

Prayer after Communion

Presider Let us pray.

God for whom we wait, you fulfilled the hope of Simeon, who did not die till he had welcomed the Messiah. Complete in us your perfect will, that we in Christ may share in your eternal kingdom; for he is Lord for ever and ever.

People Amen.

Presider Glory to God,
People whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider May the God of infinite goodness scatter the darkness of sin and brighten your hearts with holiness; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People Amen.

Hymn

A - men, we praise your name O Lord

A-men, we praise your name O Lord. A-men, A-men,

A-men, A-men A - men we praise your name O Lord.

Hymn

Tune: Miles Lane

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
 Let angels prostrate fall;
 bring forth the royal diadem
 and crown him, crown him,
 crown him, crown him Lord of all.

Hail him, the heir of David's line, whom David Lord did call,
 the God incarnate, life divine,
 and crown him, crown him,
 crown him, crown him Lord of all.

Crown him, you martyrs of your God, who from his altar call;
praise him whose burning path you trod,
and crown him, crown him,
crown him, crown him Lord of all.

Let every tongue and every tribe, delivered from the fall,
to Christ all majesty ascribe,
and crown him, crown him,
crown him, crown him Lord of all.

O that, with heaven's sacred throng,
we at his feet may fall,
lift high the universal song,
and crown him, crown him,
crown him, crown him Lord of all!

2024 Vestry Nominating Committee

St. James Cathedral's Annual Vestry meeting is scheduled for Sunday, March 10th, 2024 after the 10:00am service.

The Nominating Committee, chaired by Bill Benson, is now receiving names for election for the following positions:

- People's Warden
- Deputy People's Warden
- Assistant Deputy People's Warden
- Cathedral Council
- Synod Representatives and Alternates

All are one-year terms with opportunity for renewal for 3 years.

Nominations require a nominator, a seconder, and the agreement of the nominees to let their names stand. Nominations should be sent to Bill Benson at billbenson0520@gmail.com for consideration by the committee.

The Nominating Committee will produce a recommended slate for Vestry that is representative of the congregation and considers the necessary experience and skills required. The process for choosing the slate will start by asking current eligible representatives if they are willing to stand for re-election. Next, all nominations from the congregation will be considered.

As always, the Vestry Chair will ask for nominations from the floor on the day of the Vestry meeting. All eligible nominations will be accepted.

Feel free to email billbenson0520@gmail.com if you have any further questions. The Wardens

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL-CONNECTIONS – Sunday, February 4, 2024 Celebrating Black History Month at St. James

- Children & Families: Sunday school meets at 9:00am & 11:00am services.
- Coffee Hour: Following 9:00am & 11:00am services.
- Visit us: The Cathedral is open from 10:00am–3:00pm, Monday-Saturday.
- Today at 4:30pm: We welcome the Chapel Choir of Trinity College, University of Toronto.

It has been said that Black people have been given the shortest month of the year to celebrate their heritage and history. Perhaps we should celebrate a “Season of Freedom”, beginning with Martin Luther King Jr.’s Birthday (January 15) and ending with the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (March 21).

Between these bookends we celebrate the birthday of Lincoln Alexander, on January 21st (the first Black Canadian to be elected to the House of Commons, and Lieutenant Governor of Ontario), Black History Month, also known as Afrikan Heritage Month, also known as Afrikan Liberation Month, and Freedom Sunday, the 4th Sunday in February) – an opportunity for the church to deepen its understanding of God’s heart for justice, discover, and fight to end the realities of modern slavery.

This year’s theme is “Black Excellence: A Heritage to Celebrate, a Future to Build”. Black excellence is more than the extraordinary success of Black persons in their chosen fields. It also has to do with the amazing capacity of every Black Canadian to thrive and succeed, starting with Mathieu Da Costa, the Black African who served as an interpreter for French and Dutch traders and explorers in the early 17th century, through Michaëlle Jean, who served as the 27th Governor-general of Canada, since Canadian Confederation, to Matthew Waterman, our postulant.

Our Music Director has chosen choral and congregational music to support our observance of the month. Canon Anthony Jemmott (Feb. 18) and I (Feb. 11) will reflect on the theme during our homilies. Mark your calendar for a special Coffee Hour on February 25 after the 11:00am service. In addition to a musical presentation, there will be a display of “Black Excellence” and samples of African and Caribbean finger foods.

The Reverend Canon Dr. Stephen Fields (Sub-Dean & Vicar)
