Full Communion & Shared Resources

Anglican Church of Canada

At the 2001 meeting of the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada in Waterloo, the signing of the document “Called to Full Communion” (The Waterloo Declaration), marked the start of a Full Communion relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC). Last June in Calgary, these two synods with the Northern Province of the Moravian Church in America (including Canada) signed “One Flock, One Shepherd: Lutherans, Anglicans, and Moravians—Called to Walk Together in Full Communion” (The Moravian Declaration) to establish their full communion relationship. More information may be found at this link: www.anglicanlutheran.ca/partnerships/moravian-church/ This relationship means that the three churches may welcome all ordained ministers to serve in the ministry of the other, consult on ministry issues, establish collegial and conciliar consultation of matters of faith, and share authorized liturgical resources, among other things. With this in mind, our cathedral has been using Lutheran Eucharistic Prayers and the version of the Moravian Lord’s Prayer in our services. By doing this occasionally, not only are we giving meaning to our relationships, but we are giving leadership in the diocese in this way. The Rev. Canon Dr. Stephen Fields (Vicar)

Join our Stewardship Campaign before November 11 – Last Call

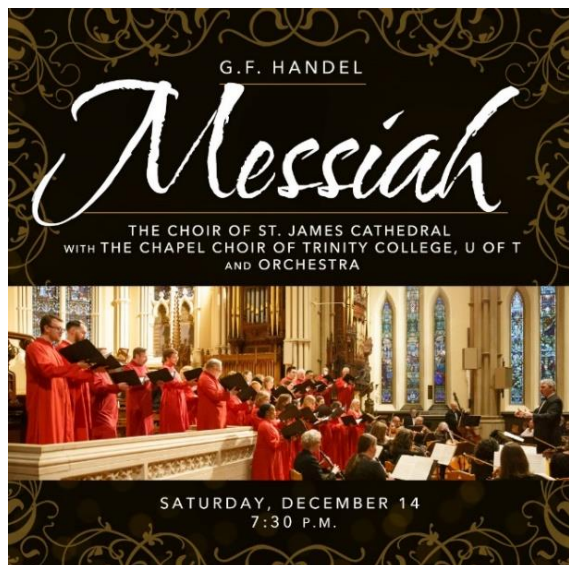

On Monday November 11, we will close our Stewardship Campaign for 2024. I am so grateful to all those who contributed - so far we have raised 382,565 in gifts and pledges. You have made possible the work to launch our Children's Community Choir, the recruitment of a new Canon Missioner, and some necessary repairs to our organ among other things. It feels good to have played a part in seeing our beloved St. James Cathedral move forward, doesn't it? I want everyone to have that feeling. So far, 85 people returned response cards. But it's not too late.

If you haven't responded yet, I would love to ask you to before November 11. If you can make a weekly or monthly gift, whatever the amount, you are saying "I'm in! I'm part of the team working to make this happen." Pick up a Stewardship pack. Think. Pray. And return the form. St. James Cathedral needs you. Will you join me in playing your part?
