

Third Sunday after the Epiphany

January 26, 2025

Sung Eucharist at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note:

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Today's Homilist: The Reverend Doug Smith

We welcome The Rev. Doug Smith, today's homilist in the Stephen Vail Preaching Program. The program provides Assistant Curates in their second year of ordained ministry an opportunity to preach at the Cathedral at its 9am and 11am liturgies.

Doug was born and raised in Toronto. His faith journey began with The Salvation Army and in 1982 was ordained and commissioned as a Salvation Army Officer (Minister) where he served for 30 years in various ministries throughout Western Canada and the province of Ontario. In 2012 he was received into Anglican Church. For the next 12 years, he worked in the non-profit sector in the areas of Human Resources and Fundraising. In May 2023 he was ordained a deacon and was priested in January 2024. Doug is currently the Assistant Curate at St. Paul's on-the-Hill, Pickering.

*Welcome! We are glad you have joined us for worship this morning.
Please ensure that cell phones are muted.*

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Our practice during this liturgy is to stand when we sing and during the proclamation of the Gospel, sit for other Scripture readings (including the Psalm) and the Homily, and stand, sit, or kneel for prayer. These are guidelines and we invite you to assume a posture that is most comfortable for you during the service.

Welcome & Announcements

Hymn

Tune: Laus Deo

All Send, O God, your Holy Spirit on your people gathered here.
Fill our lives with gentle courage; let your love cast out our fear.

Every perfect gift is given by the God whose name we bear to equip the saints of Jesus for the saving work we share.

Gifts of wisdom, gifts of knowledge, gifts of faith and healing grace, gifts that in the Spirit's power will reveal the Saviour's face.

All God's children, all Christ's people, all the saints, receive this word!
Claim the gift, the faith, the promise, build the body of the Lord.

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,

People to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

During the Gloria, children are invited to gather at the chancel steps before proceeding to the Library in the Cathedral Centre for Sunday School; they will return at the offertory.

Gloria

David Hurd

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heav-en-ly king, al-migh-ty God and Fa-ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry. Lord Je-sus Christ, on - ly Son of the Fa - ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer-cy on us;
you are sea-ted at the right hand of the Fa - ther, re - ceive our prayer.
For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High,
Je - sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spi - rit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther, A - men.

Collect of the Day

Presider

Let us pray.

God of all mercy, your Son proclaimed good news to the poor, release to the captives, and freedom to the oppressed: anoint us with your Holy Spirit, so that all people may be free to praise you in Christ our Lord.

People

Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

Reader All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, 'Amen, Amen', lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground.

So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.'

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 19

Tune: This Endris Nyght

All The heavens above declare God's praise,
The work his hands have made:
Day after day his power is shown,
And night by night displayed.

There is no utterance or speech,
No voice is ever heard.
Yet to all nations comes the sound,
To every place their word

Forth like a bridegroom comes the sun
From its appointed place,
And like a hero on his course
Rejoices in the race.

It runs from East to farthest West
To make its course complete,
And nothing in the world beneath
Escapes its scorching heat.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:12-31a

Reader

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot were to say, 'Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear were to say, 'Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I have no need of you', nor again the head to the feet, 'I have no need of you.' On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honourable we clothe with greater honour, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honour to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together with it.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts.

Reader

The word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Deacon

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

‘The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.'

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

Deacon The Gospel of Christ. People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Apostles' Creed

Please stand.

Presider Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please adopt a posture of prayer.

Presider With the Spirit of Christ shining upon us, let us pray for the church, the world and all creation saying, "God of grace, hear our prayer."

Intercessor God of grace,

People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider We entrust our prayers to you, O God, in the sure and certain hope that your promise is being realized among us.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Please stand.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

We offer each other a sign of peace.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Nettleton

All Praise the one who breaks the darkness with a liberating light.
Praise the one who frees the prisoners,
turning blindness into sight.
Praise the one who preached the gospel,
healing every dread disease, calming storms and feeding thousands with the very bread of peace.

Praise the one who blessed the children with a strong yet gentle word.

Praise the one who drove out demons with a piercing two-edged sword.

Praise the one who brings cool water to the desert's burning sand.

From this well comes living water, quenching thirst in every land.

Praise the one true love incarnate:
Christ who suffered in our place.

Jesus died and rose for many that we may know God by grace.

Let us sing for joy and gladness,
seeing what our God has done.

Praise the one redeeming glory,
praise the One who makes us one.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Loving God, before the world began you called us. Make holy all we offer you this day, and strengthen us in that calling. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; you have revealed your eternal plan of salvation, and have shown your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of all peoples. Therefore with angels and archangels we raise our voices in joyful praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of po-wer and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please adopt a posture of prayer.

Presider

We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling the Israelites to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Father, according to his command,

People

we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Communion Hymn

Tune: Solothurn

All Now let us from this table rise renewed in body, mind and soul;
with Christ we die and rise again,
his selfless love has made us whole.

With minds alert, upheld by grace,
to spread the word in speech and deed,
we follow in the steps of Christ,
at one with all in hope and need.

To fill each human house with love,
it is the sacrament of care;
the work that Christ began to do
we humbly pledge ourselves to share.

Then grant us grace, Companion-God, to choose again the pilgrim way and help us to accept with joy
the challenge of tomorrow's day.

Hymn

Tune: Wolvercote

All “The kingdom is upon you!” the voice of Jesus cries, fulfilling with its message the wisdom of the wise;
it lightens with fresh insight the striving human mind,
creating new dimensions of faith for all to find.

“God’s kingdom is upon you!” the message sounds today,
it summons every pilgrim to take the questing way,
with eyes intent on Jesus, our leader and our friend, who trod faith’s road before us, and trod it to the end.

The kingdom is upon us! Stirred by the Spirit's breath, we glory in its freedom from emptiness and death;
 we celebrate its purpose, its mission, and its goal,
 alive with the conviction that Christ can make us whole!
