

The Presentation of the Lord

February 2, 2025

Sung Eucharist at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note:

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Prelude

Welcome & Announcements

Hymn

Tune: McKee

All

In Christ there is no east or west,
in him no pride of birth;
the family that God has blessed now spans the whole wide earth.

For God in Christ has made us one from every land and race;
has reconciled us through the Son,
and met us all with grace.

It is by grace we are assured that we belong to him:
the love we share in Christ our Lord,
the Spirit's work within.

So brothers, sisters, praise his name who died to set us free from sin, division, hate and shame, from spite and enmity!

In Christ there is no east or west
he breaks all barriers down:
by Christ redeemed, by Christ possessed in Christ we live as one.

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,

People to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

During the Gloria, children are invited to gather at the chancel steps before proceeding to the Library in the Cathedral Centre for Sunday School; they will return at the offertory.

Gloria

David Hurd

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heav-en-ly king, al-migh-ty God and Fa-ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry. Lord Je-sus Christ, on - ly Son of the Fa - ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer-cy on us;
you are sea-ted at the right hand of the Fa - ther, re - ceive our prayer.
For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High,
Je - sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spi - rit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther, A - men.

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

God of love, you gave your Son to be a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel. With Simeon and Anna and all who hail redemption's happy dawn, may we sing your praise and proclaim salvation in Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Malachi 3:1-4

Reader See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84

Tune: St. Botolph

All How dear your dwelling place to me,
O Lord of hosts, my king;
My soul desires the courts of God
Whose praise my heart will sing.
The sparrow now has found a house
The swallow has a nest
Where she may lay her young, O Lord,
And by your altar rest.
Happy are those who dwell with you
And always sing your praise;
Happy the ones you strengthen, Lord,
With hearts set on your ways.
In lonely valleys they will find
A place of pools and springs,
And as they climb to Zion's heights
They see the King of kings.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 2:14-18

Reader Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 2:22-40

Deacon The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Deacon When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, 'Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord'), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, 'a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.'

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

‘Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.’

And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, ‘This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.’

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.

Deacon

The Gospel of Christ. People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

The Apostles’ Creed

Please stand.

Presider

Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please adopt a posture of prayer.

Presider Let us offer our prayers to the Lord of Hosts, who purifies us as the descendants of Levi and refines us like gold and silver, that we may present offerings to him in righteousness, saying, “Lord, hear and have mercy.”

Intercessor Lord,
People Hear and have mercy.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider As your Son Jesus Christ was presented in your temple, so may we offer our lives to you in faith with thanksgiving. Through Christ we pray.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God’s forgiveness.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Please stand.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

We offer each other a sign of peace.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Precious Lord

All Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand;
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn;
through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the light:
take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

When my way grows drear, precious Lord, linger near;
when my life is almost gone,
hear my cry, hear my call, hold my hand lest I fall:
take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

When the darkness appears and the night draws near,
and the day is past and gone,
at the river I stand; guide my feet, hold my hand:
take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give knowledge of salvation in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Now with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, we lift our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Bless - ed__ is he who comes in the name of the Lord.__ Ho - san - na in__ the high est.__ Ho - san - na in__ the high - est.

Please adopt a posture of prayer.

Presider God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, you have brought us this far along the way. In times of bitterness you did not abandon us, but guided us into the path of love and light. In every age you sent prophets to make known your loving will for all humanity. The cry of the poor has become your own cry; our hunger and thirst for justice is your own desire. In the fullness of time, you sent your chosen servant to preach good news to the afflicted, to break bread with the outcast and despised, and to ransom those in bondage to prejudice and sin.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we await the day when Jesus shall return to free all the earth from the bonds of slavery and death. Come, Lord Jesus! And let the church say, Amen.

People Amen.

Presider Send your Holy Spirit, our advocate, to fill the hearts of all who share this bread and cup with courage and wisdom to pursue love and justice in all the world. Come, Spirit of freedom! And let the church say, Amen.

People Amen.

Presider Join our prayers and praise with your prophets and martyrs of every age, that, rejoicing in the hope of the resurrection, we might live in the freedom and hope of your Son. Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

People Amen.

Hymn

Tune: Wiltshire

All

Lord, bid Your servant go in peace,
Your word is now fulfilled.
These eyes have seen salvation's dawn,
This child so long foretold.

This is the Saviour of the world,
The Gentiles' promised light,
God's glory dwelling in our midst,
The joy of Israel.

This child will see the rise, the fall,
Of those in Israel.
God's sign raised high for all to see,
Whom some shall yet deny.

Blest be the Father who has given
His son to be our Lord,
Blest too the Son, and with them both
The Spirit of their love.

With saints of old, with saints to come,
To You we lift our voice;
To Father, Son, and Spirit blest
Be honour, love and praise.

Celebrating Black History Month at St. James

Jean Augustine

"The seeds of a fruitful society are sown in the minds of its youth."

She was the first Black Canadian woman to serve as a federal member of Parliament and as a cabinet minister. A teacher first elected in 1993 and re-elected three times, she also served as the patron of several non-profit organizations after leaving politics. In 1995, introduced a motion in the House of Commons to recognize February as Black History Month. The motion passed unanimously and took effect in 1996.

Message from the Rev. Kristen Pitts, our first Canon Missioner

Dear siblings in Christ: I am so delighted to be joining the St. James community as Canon Missioner. It is obvious that you are committed to sharing God's love with your neighbors in the city, and I look forward to serving among and alongside you as we grow together in faith. I bring to this role a deep well of experience as an educator and formation professional, as well as a passion for helping others find their place in the Christian story. Though I've served in a variety of contexts, my vocation has always been in meeting people where they are and helping them take the next step in their spiritual journey.

My family is also looking forward to meeting you. My wife Beth is a public interest attorney and enthusiastic native plants gardener. Our son Lev makes friends everywhere he goes and loves exploring nature, especially bugs. Beyond my vocation, I enjoy reading and various creative pursuits, including graphic design and playing the ukulele. We all also love trying out new cuisines, so we hope you'll share your favorite restaurant recommendations! As Dean Stephen shared last week, I'll be joining you all on April 27. Until then, please keep our family in your prayers as we prepare for this transition—and know that I'll be holding you in prayer as well. Faithfully, Kristen+
