

Holy Cross Day

September 14, 2025 at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note:

*In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Questions? Our greeters wearing name tags are here to help.

Children & Families

Children of all ages are invited to participate in and help lead our service. Our volunteers are here to tell you how you can help today or in the future.

For more information: our Children and families ministry, contact our Children, Youth, and Family Minister Karyne Whalen at kwhalen@stjamescathedral.ca.

Children's Community Choir, contact Director Cara Halpin at chalpin@stjamescathedral.ca.

For our youngest worshipers, a soft space for wiggling and crawling is offered at the front near the altar. If you need a changing table or quiet space to sit with your child, our St. George's Chapel is available just outside the rear doors of the sanctuary.

Accessibility

An all-gender accessible washroom is located at the front of the sanctuary through the doors to the left. Assisted hearing devices are available from the greeters wearing name tags.

Please check that devices are silenced and keep your belongings with you at all times.

We're glad you're here! At this service, people of all ages and abilities pray, sing, learn, lead, and grow in faith TOGETHER.

We know that all our brains and bodies are different, and we hope you will feel comfortable participating in the ways that are best for you.

Today, our presider will be The Reverend Matthew Waterman, and our homilist will be The Reverend Canon Kristen Pitts.

While our bulletin includes suggested postures for different parts of the service, these are traditional ways that Christians have participated in the liturgy with their bodies and are not required. Please use postures that support your own prayerful engagement in the service.

The flowers in the Cathedral are given to the glory of God

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

All are invited to walk in the procession if they wish! Please gather in the entrance of the Cathedral (Narthex) during the first verse to join in.

Opening Song

All Morning has broken like the first morning;
black-bird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from heaven,
like the first dew fall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,
sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God's recreation of the new day!

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Holy God, your Son suffered on a cross so that the whole world might live in his love. May we who celebrate the mystery of our redemption be given the grace to take up our cross and follow Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Numbers 21:4b-9 (CEB)

Reader A reading from the Book of Numbers, chapter 21

The people became impatient on the road. The people spoke against God and Moses: "Why did you bring us up from Egypt to kill us in the desert, where there is no food or water. And we detest this miserable bread!" So the Lord sent poisonous snakes among the people and they bit the people. Many of the Israelites died.

The people went to Moses and said, "We've sinned, for we spoke against the Lord and you. Pray to the Lord so that he will send the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

The Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous snake and place it on a pole. Whoever is bitten can look at it and live." Moses made a bronze snake and placed it on a pole. If a snake bit someone, that person could look at the bronze snake and live.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 98:1-6

From God's Word, My Voice

Reader The psalm for today is Psalm 98, verses 1-6. Please join me in the refrain:

All We'll sing and make music for you, God.

Reader Together we'll sing a brand new song to you, God, because of all the incredible things you have done.
You are a winner! We'll make sure everyone knows.

All We'll sing and make music for you, God.

Reader You haven't forgotten about us.
Your love for us is faithful through all that we've been through together.
Let's break out in song, everyone all over the world.
Get your harps and trumpets and your voices ready to sing praises to God.

All We'll sing and make music for you, God.

Homily

The Apostles' Creed

Please stand.

Presider Together we declare our faith. After each question, please respond with "This we believe."

Do you believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth?

People This we believe.

Presider Do you believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; who descended to the dead, and on the third day rose again; who ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father; and who will come again to judge the living and the dead?

People This we believe.

Presider Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting?

People This we believe. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please adopt a posture of prayer.

Leader In peace let us pray together, saying "God of love, hear our prayer."

People God of love,
Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Leader We give you thanks, O God, for all your saints throughout the ages, and especially for Saint James our patron.

Intercessor Out on the sea, Saint James immediately followed Christ when he called. Make us ready to follow Christ without hesitation, too.

People God of love,
Hear our prayer.

Intercessor High up a mountain, Saint James witnessed the transfiguration of Christ. Make us ready to see your holiness in unexpected places, too.

People God of love,
Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Along the road to Jerusalem, Saint James learned from Christ that true greatness is found in serving others. Make us ready to love others through humble service, too.

People God of love,
Hear our prayer.

Presider Holy God, you have heard our prayers. Now give us grace to work for those things we have asked of you, and answer our prayers in the way that you know is best for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God's love and mercy are limitless. Let us confess our sins, Confident in God's forgiveness.

Please repeat each line after me.

Presider Loving God, we know that we have done wrong.

People We have not loved you with our whole heart.

We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry.

Have mercy on us and forgive us,

that we may walk in love always.

All Amen.

Presider Truly God's love and mercy are limitless. Know that you are forgiven, and Christ will help you to follow his ways. Amen.

The Peace

Peace The peace of Christ be always with you!

Tune: Solothurn

Choir Now let us from this table rise renewed in body, mind and soul;
with Christ we die and rise again,
his selfless love has made us whole.

With minds alert, upheld by grace,
to spread the word in speech and deed,
we follow in the steps of Christ,
at one with all in hope and need.

To fill each human house with love,
it is the sacrament of care;
the work that Christ began to do
we humbly pledge ourselves to share.

Then grant us grace, Companion-God, to choose again the pilgrim way and help us to accept with joy
the challenge of tomorrow's day.

Closing Song

Tune: How Can I Keep From Singing

All My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.

Refrain:

*No storm can shake my inmost calm,
while to that Rock I'm clinging.
Since Love is lord of heaven and earth,
how can I keep from singing?*

Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing;
it finds and echoes in my soul;
how can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest 'round me roar,
I hear the truth it liveth.
What though the darkness 'round me close,
songs in the night he giveth.

When tyrants tremble, sick with fear,
and hear the death knells ringing;
when friends rejoice both far and near,
how can I keep from singing?

The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
a fountain ever springing.
All things are mine since I am his;
how can I keep from singing?
