

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 10, 2026 at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note:

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Children & Families

Children of all ages are invited to participate in and help lead our service. Our volunteers are here to tell you how you can help today or in the future.

For our youngest worshipers, a soft space for wiggling and crawling is offered at the front near the altar. If you need a changing table or quiet space to sit with your child, our St. George's Chapel is available just outside the rear doors of the sanctuary.

For more information about children and family programs, contact our Children, Youth, and Family Minister Karyne Whalen at kwhalen@stjamescathedral.ca.

To learn about our Children's Community Choir, contact Director Cara Halpin at chalpin@stjamescathedral.ca.

Accessibility

We're glad you're here! At this service, people of all ages and abilities pray, sing, learn, lead, and grow in faith TOGETHER.

We know that all our brains and bodies are different, and we hope you will feel comfortable participating in the ways that are best for you.

All baptized Christians are ministers of God's Church. In this Eucharist we each contribute as co-celebrants with Christ, the Chief Celebrant, and both lay people and clergy serve in a variety of ways.

We invite you to offer your gifts by choosing a card from the "Help Us Worship Together" board or by talking with one of our clergy about pre-assigned lay roles like readers and greeters.

Today our presider is The Reverend Jillian Ruch and our homilist is The Very Reverend Dr. Stephen Hance.

While our bulletin includes suggested postures for different parts of the service, these are traditional ways that Christians have participated in the liturgy with their bodies and are not required. Please use postures that support your own prayerful engagement in the service.

The flowers at the Cathedral are given to the glory of God.

In honour of Mother's day and in thanksgiving for a 70th birthday celebration,

And in loving memory of Harry & Eva Wall; Cpl. Gordon and Mabel Saunders and Joyce Ellen Farrish

Opening Hymn

Tune: Bunessan

All Morning has broken like the first morning;
black-bird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from heaven,
like the first dew fall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden, sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God's recreation of the new day!

Presider Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People* The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Collect of Purity

Presider The Lord be with you.

People* And also with you.

All* Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden.

Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria
All

Tune: Hymn to Joy

Glory be to God in heaven,
And to all God's people, peace.
Heavenly Sovereign, great Creator,
May our worship never cease;
May our voices ever thank you,
Songs of blessing ever send,
May we always live to praise you,
For your glory without end.

Jesus, Lamb of God, redeemer,
Merciful beyond compare,
All our sin by you forgiven;
Hear and grant to us our prayer.
You are seated now in power,
At the Maker's own right hand:
Show your mercy in this hour,
Bring your peace to every land.

For you only are the Holy,
You alone the sovereign Lord,
With the Spirit, ever reigning,
And the Maker—glorious God!
With the Spirit, now and ever,
In the Maker's glory bright;
Three in One, our praise we offer,
God of glory, love, and light.

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Loving God, you invite us to abide in you. Help us follow the Spirit of truth and keep your commandments, so that we may be messengers of your love to the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Acts 17:22-31

Reader A reading from the Book of Acts, chapter 17.

Paul stood up in the middle of the council on Mars Hill and said, “People of Athens, I see that you are very religious in every way. As I was walking through town and carefully observing your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: ‘To an unknown God.’ What you worship as unknown, I now proclaim to you. God, who made the world and everything in it, is Lord of heaven and earth. He doesn’t live in temples made with human hands. Nor is God served by human hands, as though he needed something, since he is the one who gives life, breath, and everything else. From one person God created every human nation to live on the whole earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their lands. God made the nations so they would seek him, perhaps even reach out to him and find him. In fact, God isn’t far away from any of us. In God we live, move, and exist. As some of your own poets said, ‘We are his offspring.’

“Therefore, as God’s offspring, we have no need to imagine that the divine being is like a gold, silver, or stone image made by human skill and thought. God overlooks ignorance of these things in times past, but now directs everyone everywhere to change their hearts and lives. This is because God has set a day when he intends to judge the world justly by a man he has appointed. God has given proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead.”

Reader The word of the Lord.

People* Thanks be to God.

Psalm 66:7-18

From Evangelical Lutheran Worship

Reader The psalm for today is Psalm 66, verses 7 through 18. Please join me in the refrain.

All* Let us praise God, who hears our prayers.

Reader Bless our God, you peoples;
let the sound of praise be heard.
Our God has kept us among the living and has not allowed our feet to slip.

All* Let us praise God, who hears our prayers.

Reader For you, O God, have tested us;

you have tried us just as silver is tried.
You brought us into the net;
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.
You let people ride over our heads; we went through fire and water, but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.

All Let us praise God, who hears our prayers.

Reader I will enter your house with burnt offerings and will pay you my vows—those that I promised with my lips and spoke with my mouth when I was in trouble.
I will offer you burnt offerings of fatlings with the smoke of rams;
I will give you oxen and goats.

All Let us praise God, who hears our prayers.

Reader Come and listen, all you who believe,
and I will tell you what God has done for me.
I called out to God with my mouth,
and praised the Lord with my tongue.

All Let us praise God, who hears our prayers.

Reader If I had cherished evil in my heart,
the Lord would not have heard me;
but in truth God has heard me and has attended to the sound of my prayer.
Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer,
nor withheld unfailing love from me

All Let us praise God, who hears our prayers.

Please stand.

John 14:15-21

Reader The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Reader This is the Good News of our Lord Jesus Christ as told by John.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Reader “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. I will ask the Father, and he will send another Companion, who will be with you forever. This Companion is the Spirit of Truth, whom the world can’t receive because it neither sees him nor recognizes him. You know him, because he lives with you and will be with you.

“I won’t leave you as orphans. I will come to you. Soon the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Because I live, you will live too. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, you are in me, and I am in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them loves me. Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.”

Offertory Hymn

All Just as the deer longs for the water brooks, so longs my soul for you, O Lord my God.
All that I am thirsts for the living spring of your kind presence welling deep within.
Why now so full of heaviness my soul?
Why such disquiet deep within my heart?

Deep calls to deep in cataracts of thunder;
your floods and rapids crash across my life.
My tears have been my food both day and night;
my God, why now have you forgotten me?
Why now so full of heaviness my soul?
Why such disquiet deep within my heart?

All through the day my God will comfort me,
and in the night my voice will raise God's song,
and I will go to worship in God's house.
God of my life, to you I raise my prayer,
and when I come into your presence, Lord,
my barren soul will blossom with new life.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Gracious God, you reign over heaven and earth and in your goodness you shower us with blessings. As you have given us new life in Christ, give us glad and generous hearts, ready to praise you and to respond to those in need, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is indeed right to give you thanks and praise for the glorious resurrection of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who in dying has destroyed death, and in rising has brought us to eternal life. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and sea and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

All ♪ Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. ♪

Presider Holy, living, and loving God, we praise you for creating the heavens and the earth. We bless you for bringing Noah and his family through the waters of the flood, for freeing your people Israel from the bonds of slavery, and for sending your Son to be our Redeemer. We give you thanks for Jesus who, living among us, healed the sick, fed the hungry, and with a love stronger than death, gave his life for others.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his life-giving death and glorious resurrection, we await your promised life for all this dying world. Breathe your Spirit on us and on this bread and cup: carry us in your arms from death to life, that we may live as your chosen ones, clothed in the righteousness of Christ. Through him all glory and honor is yours, Almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy Church, both now and forever.

People Amen.

Announcements

Closing Hymn

Tune: Diademata

All Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne:
hark, how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee, and hail him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save.

His glories now we sing who died and rose on high, who died eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of peace, whose power a sceptre sways from pole to pole, that wars may cease, absorbed in prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end;
and round his pierced feet fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown him the Lord of love;
behold his hands and side,
rich wounds yet visible above,
in beauty glorified.
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
for thou hast died for me;
thy praise shall never, never fail throughout eternity.

Text: Matthew Bridges
Music: George Job Elvey
