

Feast of St. James the Apostle & Emancipation Sunday

July 26, 2026 at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note:

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Questions? Our greeters wearing name tags are here to help.

Children & Families

Children of all ages are invited to participate in and help lead our service. Our volunteers are here to tell you how you can help today or in the future.

For our youngest worshipers, a soft space for wiggling and crawling is offered at the front near the altar. If you need a changing table or quiet space to sit with your child, our St. George's Chapel is available just outside the rear doors of the sanctuary.

For more information about children and family programs, contact our Children, Youth, and Family Minister Karyne Whalen at kwhalen@stjamescathedral.ca.

To learn about our Children's Community Choir, contact Director Cara Halpin at chalpin@stjamescathedral.ca.

Accessibility

An all-gender accessible washroom is located at the front of the sanctuary through the doors to the left. Assisted hearing devices are available from the greeters wearing name tags.

We're glad you're here! At this service, people of all ages and abilities pray, sing, learn, lead, and grow in faith TOGETHER.

We know that all our brains and bodies are different, and we hope you will feel comfortable participating in the ways that are best for you.

All baptized Christians are ministers of God's Church. In this Eucharist we each contribute as co-celebrants with Christ, the Chief Celebrant, and both lay people and clergy serve in a variety of ways.

We invite you to offer your gifts by choosing a card from the "Help Us Worship Together" board or by talking with one of our clergy about pre-assigned lay roles like readers and greeters.

Today our presider is The Reverend Canon Kristen Pitts, and our homilist is The Very Reverend Dr. Stephen Hance.

While our bulletin includes suggested postures for different parts of the service, these are traditional ways that Christians have participated in the liturgy with their bodies and are not required. Please use postures that support your own prayerful engagement in the service.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Welcome

Call to Worship

Please stand.

Convener This is the day that the Lord has made.

People* We will rejoice and be glad in it.

Convener We will give thanks and sing praise to God.

People* We will listen to God's Word and pray for God's people.

Convener We will come to God's table and be fed.

People* We will go out from this table and feed the world Christ calls us to serve.

Convener Jesus, you sent the Holy Spirit to your disciples. Lead us by that same Spirit today.

All* Amen.

All are invited to walk in the procession if they wish! Please gather in the entrance of the Cathedral (Narthex) during the first verse to join in.

Opening Hymn

Tune: Dix

All Welcome to Christ's family, fellow member with us all!
God who beckons you today down the years your name will call.
Christ the Lord makes all things new:
in his name we welcome you!

Welcome as a branch new-grown,
added here with faith and prayer,
joined with us to Christ the Vine,
watched and watered with due care.
Christ the Lord makes all things new:
in his name we welcome you!

Welcome to Christ's body here
and in many a scattered place:
Christian people far and near serve the Lord of every race.
Christ the Lord makes all things new:
in his name we welcome you!

Welcome! All Christ's wealth is yours, riches vast beyond compare;
we are Christ's inheritors and his heavenly kingdom share.
Christ the Lord makes all things new:
in his name we welcome you!

Collect of Purity

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria

Refrain

"Gloria" from Mass of St. Thomas by David Thorne

All Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory. Refrain

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer. Refrain

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Refrain

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, we remember today your servant James, the first apostle to give his life for faith in Jesus Christ. Pour out on all your people that spirit of self-denying service which is the mark of true leadership. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Acts 11:27-12:3

Reader A reading from the Book of Acts, chapter 11.

About that time, some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. One of them, Agabus, stood up and, inspired by the Spirit, predicted that a severe famine would overtake the entire Roman world. (This occurred during Claudius' rule.) The disciples decided they would send support to the brothers and sisters in Judea, with everyone contributing to this ministry according to each person's abundance. They sent Barnabas and Saul to take this gift to the elders.

About that time King Herod began to harass some who belonged to the church. He had James, John's brother, killed with a sword. When he saw that this pleased the Jews, he arrested Peter as well. This happened during the Festival of Unleavened Bread.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 7:1-10

From Evangelical Lutheran Worship

Reader The psalm for today is Psalm 7, verses 1 through 10. Please join me in the refrain:

All I put my life in your hands, O Lord.

Reader O Lord my God, I take refuge in you;
save and deliver me from all who pursue me;
lest like a lion they tear me in pieces and snatch me away with none to deliver me.

All I put my life in your hands, O Lord.

Reader O Lord my God, if I have done these things:
if there is any wickedness in my hands,

if I have repaid my friend with evil,
or plundered my enemy without cause,
then let my enemy pursue and overtake me, trample my life into the ground, and lay my honor in the dust.

All I put my life in your hands, O Lord.

Reader Stand up, O Lord, in your wrath; rise up against the fury of my enemies.
Awake, O my God, decree justice.
Let the assembly of the peoples gather round you.
Be seated on your lofty throne, O Most High.

All I put my life in your hands, O Lord.

Reader O Lord, judge the nations; give judgment for me according to my righteousness, O Lord, and according to my innocence, O Most High.
Let the malice of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous;
for you test the mind and heart, O righteous God.
God is my shield and defense,
the savior of the true in heart.

All I put my life in your hands, O Lord.

Please stand.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Jesus along with her sons. Bowing before him, she asked a favor of him.

"What do you want?" he asked.

She responded, "Say that these two sons of mine will sit, one on your right hand and one on your left, in your kingdom."

Jesus replied, "You don't know what you're asking! Can you drink from the cup that I'm about to drink from?"

They said to him, "We can."

He said to them, "You will drink from my cup, but to sit at my right or left hand isn't mine to give. It belongs to those for whom my Father prepared it."

Now when the other ten disciples heard about this, they became angry with the two brothers. But Jesus called them over and said, "You know that those who rule the Gentiles show off their authority over them and their high-ranking officials order them around. But that's not the way it will be with you. Whoever wants to be great among you will be your servant. Whoever wants to be first among you will be your slave—just as the Human One didn't come to be served but rather to serve and to give his life to liberate many people."

Homily

The Apostles' Creed

Please stand.

Presider

Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please adopt a posture of prayer.

Leader In peace let us pray together, saying “God of love, hear our prayer.”
God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider Holy God, you have heard our prayers. Now give us grace to work for those things we have asked of you, and answer our prayers in the way that you know is best for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God’s love and mercy are limitless. Let us confess our sins, confident in God’s forgiveness.

All Loving God, we know that we have done wrong. We have not loved you with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry. Have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may walk in love always. Amen.

Presider Truly God’s love and mercy are limitless. Know that you are forgiven, and Christ will help you to follow his ways. Amen.

The Peace

Please stand.

Peace The peace of Christ be always with you!

Offertory Hymn

Tune: New Britain

All Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
 I once was lost, but now am found:
 was blind, but now I see.

 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
 and grace my fears relieved;
 how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

 The Lord has promised good to me,
 his word my hope secures;
 he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

 Through many dangers, toils, and snares
 I have already come;
 'tis grace that brought me safe thus far,
 and grace will lead me home.

 When we've been there ten thousand years,
 bright shining as the sun,
 we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider Loving God, we offer at your table the gifts of our hearts. Help us take heart in you and share freely of your love, so that all creation can taste your abundance.
 We ask this in the name of Jesus, through the Spirit abiding with us now and forever.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is indeed right that we should give thanks and praise to you, almighty God, through our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and has opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and in heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

All ♪ Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

♪ Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Presider Holy God, our Maker, Redeemer, and Healer, in the harmonious world of your creation, the plants and animals, the seas and stars were whole and well in your praise.

When sin had scarred the world, you sent your Son to heal our ills and to form us again into one.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his acts of healing, his body given up, and his victory over death, we await that day when all the peoples of the earth will come to the river to enjoy the tree of life.

Send your Spirit upon us and this meal: as grains scattered on the hillside become one bread, so let your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth, that all may be fed with the Bread of life, your Son.

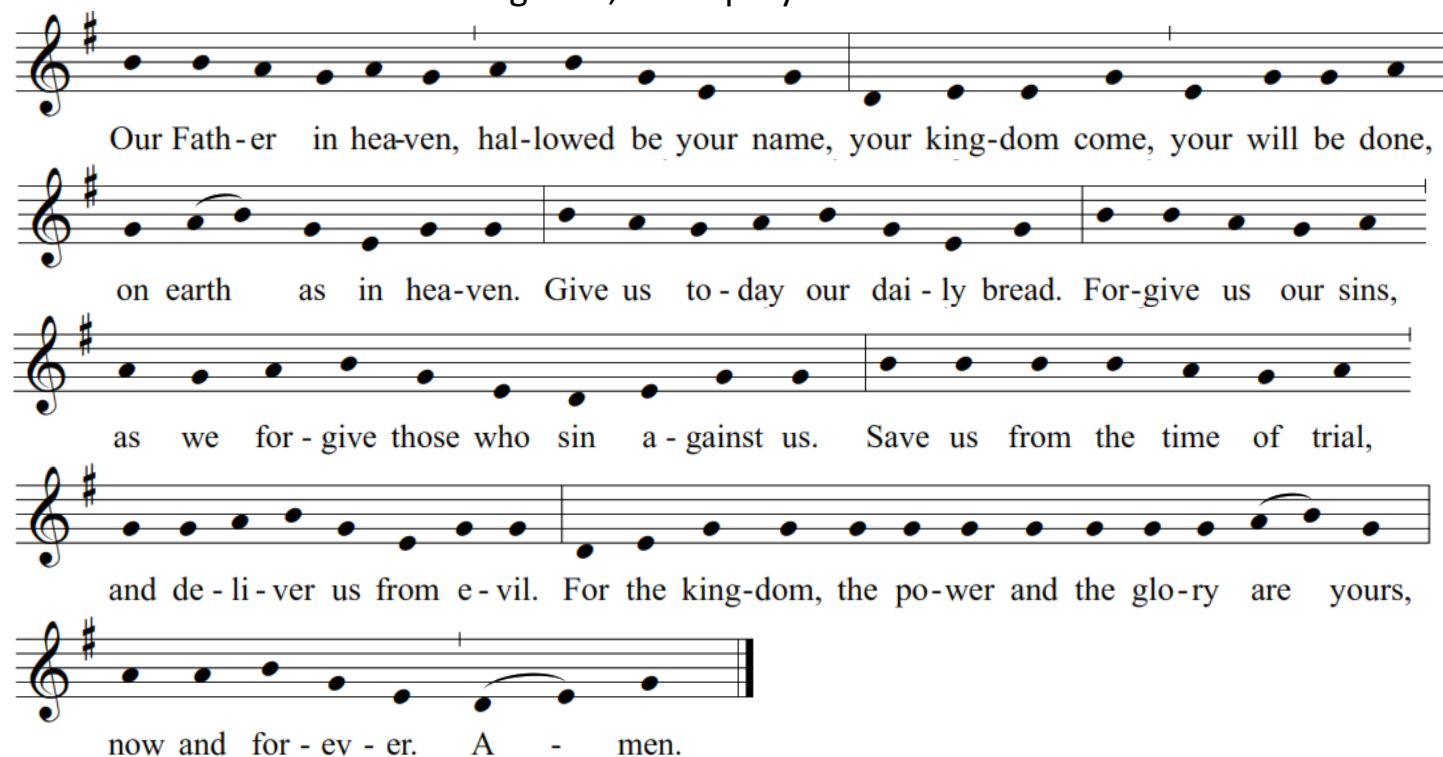

Through him all glory and honor is yours, Almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy Church, both now and forever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

McNeil Robinson

Presider As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

Our Fath-er in hea-ven, hal-lowed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread. For-give us our sins, as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of trial, and de-li-ver us from e-vil. For the king-dom, the po-wer and the glo-ry are yours, now and for-ev-er. A-men.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The Communion

Presider The gifts of God for the People of God.

People Thanks be to God.

You are invited to receive communion or a blessing. To receive communion, hold your hands out as you approach the server. To receive a blessing, cross your arms over your chest. If you require a gluten-free wafer, let the priest know. You may either sip from the chalice of wine or pause in prayer in front of it; dipping the wafer in the wine is not permitted for health reasons. You may also receive at the Lady Chapel (at the front of the right aisle). Gluten-free hosts are available there upon request.

Communion Music

Tune: Ecce, Deus

Choir For justice, for freedom, for mercy, hear our prayer.
In sorrow in grief:
be near, hear our prayer, O God.

Refrain:

*There is a longing in our hearts, O Lord,
for you to reveal yourself to us.*

*There is a longing in our hearts, O Lord,
We only find in you, our God.*

For wisdom, for courage,
for comfort, hear our prayer.
In weakness, in fear:
be near, hear our prayer, O God. Refrain

For healing, for wholeness, for new life: hear our prayer.
In sickness, in death:
be near, hear our prayer, O God. Refrain

Lord save us, take pity;
light in our darkness.
We call you, we wait:
be near, hear our prayer, O God. Refrain

Communion Hymn

All Here is bread, here is wine,
Christ is with us—he is with us;
break the bread, drink the wine—
Christ is with us here.

Here is grace, here is peace,
Christ is with us—he is with us;
know his grace, find his peace—
feast on Jesus here.

*In this bread there is healing,
in this cup there's life forever;
in this moment, by the Spirit
Christ is with us here.*

Here we are, joined in one,
Christ is with us—he is with us;
we'll proclaim, till he comes—Jesus crucified. Refrain

Prayer after Communion

Please stand.

Presider Let us pray.

Compassionate God, through the gifts of bread and wine our hearts are filled with the abundance of your love. Strengthen us that we, through this holy meal, may share your love freely, as you have shared with us. We ask this in the name of Jesus, through the Spirit nourishing us now and forever.

People Amen.

Doxology

Presider Glory to God,

All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People Amen.

Today • Patronal Festival Service and Emancipation Day at St. James

Celebrate the Feast Day of St. James and the blessing of the Emancipation Plaque after the 11:00am service with a BBQ in Snell Hall from 12:30pm to 3:00pm.

Why do we celebrate St. James, the Apostle?

Our patron saint, James the Apostle, was one of Jesus's first disciples and one of the 3 disciples at the Transfiguration. Legend says that his remains were discovered in Spain, miraculously covered in scallop shells. This is why the shell is a symbol of St. James. The feast day of a community's patron saint is an occasion for special celebration in Anglican parishes, as we honour the enduring legacy of the saint's life and ministry.

Why do we commemorate Emancipation Day?

This day marks the end of slavery in the British Empire on August 1, 1834. St. James has long held commemorative services, which were begun by Toronto's African-Canadian community. The day honours the resilience and contributions of Black communities in Canada.

Thank you Waithera
