WORSHIP TOGETHER

The Twenty-Fifth Sunday After Pentecost

November 15, 2026 at 9:00am

The Cathedral Church of St. James Diocese of Toronto • Anglican Church of Canada

Welcome to St. James Cathedral

This sacred land is the territory of several Indigenous Nations - the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and the Anishnaabe, and the Métis peoples, with special recognition to the Mississaugas of New Credit. We also acknowledge that we are on the shores of Niigaani-gichigami/Lake Ontario. This territory is governed by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Treaty, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Anishnaabe Confederacy to peaceably share and sustain the life of the Great Lakes. In the spirit of that Treaty we seek to place at the centre of our gatherings the values of respectful reciprocity, diversity, peace, responsibility, and mutual aid.

Liturgical Note:

In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but rather to either the historic Hebrews of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

Questions? Our greeters wearing name tags are here to help.

Children & Families

Children of all ages are invited to participate in and help lead our service. Our volunteers are here to tell you how you can help today or in the future.

For our youngest worshipers, a soft space for wiggling and crawling is offered at the front near the altar. If you need a changing table or quiet space to sit with your child, our St. George's Chapel is available just outside the rear doors of the sanctuary.

For more information about children and family programs, contact our Children, Youth, and Family Minister Karyne Whalen at kwhalen@stjamescathedral.ca.
To learn about our Children's Community Choir, contact Director Cara Halpin at chalpin@stjamescathedral.ca.

Accessibility

An all-gender accessible washroom is located at the front of the sanctuary through the doors to the left. Assisted hearing devices are available from the greeters wearing name tags.

Connect with the Cathedral

Parking

There is a range of affordable parking lots available around the Cathedral.
Please see the leaflets at the back of the Cathedral or online at stjamescathedral.ca/contact for more information.

Please check that devices are silenced and keep your belongings with you at all times.

We're glad you're here! At this service, people of all ages and abilities pray, sing, learn, lead, and grow in faith TOGETHER.

We know that all our brains and bodies are different, and we hope you will feel comfortable participating in the ways that are best for you.

All baptised Christians are ministers of God's Church. In this Eucharist we each contribute as co-celebrants with Christ, the Chief Celebrant, and both lay people and clergy serve in a variety of ways.

We invite you to offer your gifts by choosing a card from the "Help Us Worship Together" board or by talking with one of our clergy about pre-assigned lay roles like readers and greeters.

Today our presider is The Reverend Canon Geoffrey Sangwine, and our homilist is The Very Reverend Dr. Stephen Hance.

While our bulletin includes suggested postures for different parts of the service, these are traditional ways that Christians have participated in the liturgy with their bodies and are not required. Please use postures that support your own prayerful engagement in the service.

The flowers at the Cathedral are given to the glory of God.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Welcome

Call to Worship Please stand.

Convener This is the day that the Lord has made.
People We will rejoice and be glad in it.
Convener We will give thanks and sing praise to God.
People We will listen to God's Word and pray for God's people.
Convener We will come to God's table and be fed.
People We will go out from this table and feed the world Christ calls us to serve.

Opening Hymn Tune: Glanhafren

All What shall our greeting be? Jesus is Lord!
Sign of our unity? Jesus is Lord!
May we no more defend barriers he died to end:
give me your hand, my friend: one Church, one Lord!

What is our mission here? One world, one Lord!
He makes his purpose clear: one world, one Lord!
Spirit of truth descend, all our confusions end:
give me your hand, my friend: Jesus is Lord!

He comes to save us now, Jesus our Lord!
To serve him is to know life's true reward.
May he our lives amend, all our betrayals end:
give me your hand, my friend: Jesus is Lord!

Collect of Purity

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria

Tune: Arfon Major

All Glory be to God in heaven,
And to all God's people, peace.
Heavenly Sovereign, great Creator,
May our worship never cease;
May our voices ever thank you,
Songs of blessing ever send,
May we always live to praise you,
For your glory without end.

Jesus, Lamb of God, redeemer,
Merciful beyond compare,
All our sin by you forgiven;
Hear and grant to us our prayer.
You are seated now in power,
At the Maker's own right hand:
Show your mercy in this hour,
Bring your peace to every land.

For you only are the Holy,
You alone the sovereign Lord,
With the Spirit, ever reigning,
And the Maker—glorious God!
With the Spirit, now and ever,
In the Maker's glory bright;
Three in One, our praise we offer,
God of glory, love, and light.

Collect of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Mighty God, you sent your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of the world. Free us from all that traps us in shadows, and lead us to eternal light and joy; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

All Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD Please be seated.

The First Reading 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Reader A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

We don't need to write to you about the timing and dates, brothers and sisters. You know very well that the day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. When they are saying, "There is peace and security," at that time sudden destruction will attack them, like labour pains start with a pregnant woman, and they definitely won't escape. But you aren't in darkness, brothers and sisters, so the day won't catch you by surprise like a thief. All of you are children of light and children of the day. We don't belong to night or darkness. So then, let's not sleep like the others, but let's stay awake and stay sober. People who sleep sleep at night, and people who get drunk get drunk at night. Since we belong to the day, let's stay sober, wearing faithfulness and love as a piece of armour that protects our body and the hope of salvation as a helmet. God didn't intend for us to suffer his wrath but rather to possess salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we will live together with him. So continue encouraging each other and building each other up, just like you are doing already.

Reader The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 123 From Evangelical Lutheran Worship

Reader The psalm for today is Psalm 123. Please join me in the refrain:

All We long for your mercy, O God.

Reader To you I lift up my eyes,
to you enthroned in the heavens.
As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to you, O Lord our God, until you show us your mercy.

All We long for your mercy, O God.

Reader Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy,
for we have had more than enough of contempt,
too much of the scorn of the indolent rich,
and of the derision of the proud.

All We long for your mercy, O God.

Please stand.

Gospel Music Malcolm Archer

The Gospel Matthew 25:14-30

Reader The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Reader This is the Good News of our Lord Jesus Christ as told by Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Reader Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who was leaving on a trip. He called his servants and handed his possessions over to them. To one he gave five valuable coins, and to another he gave two, and to another he gave one. He gave to each servant according to that servant's ability. Then he left on his journey.

After the man left, the servant who had five valuable coins took them and went to work doing business with them. He gained five more. In the same way, the one who had two valuable coins gained two more. But the servant who had received the one valuable coin dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

Now after a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five valuable coins came forward with five additional coins. He said, 'Master, you gave me five valuable coins. Look, I've gained five more.'

His master replied, 'Excellent! You are a good and faithful servant! You've been faithful over a little. I'll put you in charge of much. Come, celebrate with me.'

The second servant also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two valuable coins. Look, I've gained two more.'

His master replied, 'Well done! You are a good and faithful servant. You've been faithful over a little. I'll put you in charge of much. Come, celebrate with me.'

Now the one who had received one valuable coin came and said, 'Master, I knew that you are a hard man. You harvest grain where you haven't sown. You gather crops where you haven't spread seed. So I was afraid. And I hid my valuable coin in the ground. Here, you have what's yours.'

His master replied, 'You evil and lazy servant! You knew that I harvest grain where I haven't sown and that I gather crops where I haven't spread seed? In that case, you should have turned my money over to the bankers so that when I returned, you could give me what belonged to me with interest. Therefore, take from him the valuable coin and give it to the one who has ten coins. Those who have much will receive more, and they will have more than they need. But as for those who don't have much, even the little bit they have will be taken away from them. Now take the worthless servant and throw him out into the farthest darkness.' People there will be weeping and grinding their teeth."

Reader The Good News of Christ. People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Affirmation of Faith Please stand.

Presider Let us declare our faith in God.

All We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named. We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love. We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high. We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Prayers of the People Please adopt a posture of prayer.

Leader In peace let us pray together, saying "God of love, hear our prayer."
God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayers.

Presider Holy God, you have heard our prayers. Now give us grace to work for those things we have asked of you, and answer our prayers in the way that you know is best for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession

Presider God is love and we are God's children, there is no room for fear in love. We love because God loved us first. Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith.

All God our Father, we confess to you and to our fellow members in the Body of Christ that we have sinned in thought, word and deed, and in what we have failed to do. We are truly sorry. Forgive us our sins, and deliver us from the power of evil. For the sake of your Son who died for us, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Presider God, who is both power and love, forgive you and free you from your sins, heal and strengthen you by the Holy Spirit and raise you to new life in Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace Please stand.

Peace Proclaimer The peace of Christ be always with you!

People And also with you.

We offer each other a sign of peace.

Stewardship Focus

All Almighty God, you have made us members of Christ and his Church, and have taught us through him that it is more blessed to give than to receive: make us truly thankful for all your goodness; help us to deepen our commitment as stewards of our time, talent and money, and guide us in all things to know and do your will, for the honour and glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Hymn

Tune: Nottingham

All Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee;
take my moments and my days,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
at the impulse of thy love;
take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing
always, only, for my King;
take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee.

Take my silver and my gold;
not a mite would I withhold;
take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it thine:
it shall be no longer mine;
take my heart: it is thine own;
it shall be thy royal throne.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store;
take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

Text: Frances Ridley Havergal Music: Wensel Müller

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider God of mercy and grace, the eyes of all wait upon you, and you open your hand in blessing. Fill us with good things at your table, so that we may come to the help of all in need, through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and Lord.

People Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Worship and praise belong to you, Father, in every place and at all times. All power is yours. You created the heavens and established the earth; you sustain in being all that is.

In Christ your Son, our life and yours are brought together in a wonderful exchange. He made his home among us that we might for ever dwell in you.

Through your Holy Spirit you call us to new birth in a creation restored by love.

As children of your redeeming purpose called to attain with all your saints to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, we offer you our praise, with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, singing the hymn of your unending glory:

All

Presider Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving Father, for the gift of your Son born in human flesh. He is the Word existing beyond time, both source and final purpose, bringing to wholeness all that is made. Obedient to your will he died upon the Cross. By your power you raised him from the dead. He broke the bonds of evil and set your people free to be his Body in the world.

On the night when he was given up to death, knowing that his hour had come, having loved his own, he loved them to the end.

At supper with his disciples he took bread and offered you thanks. He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying: “Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you.”

After supper, he took the cup, he offered you thanks, and gave it to them saying: “Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; it is poured out for you, and for all, that sins may be forgiven. Do this in remembrance of me.”

We now obey your Son’s command. We recall his blessed passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension; and we look for the coming of his Kingdom. Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy, living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful Father, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by your Spirit’s life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

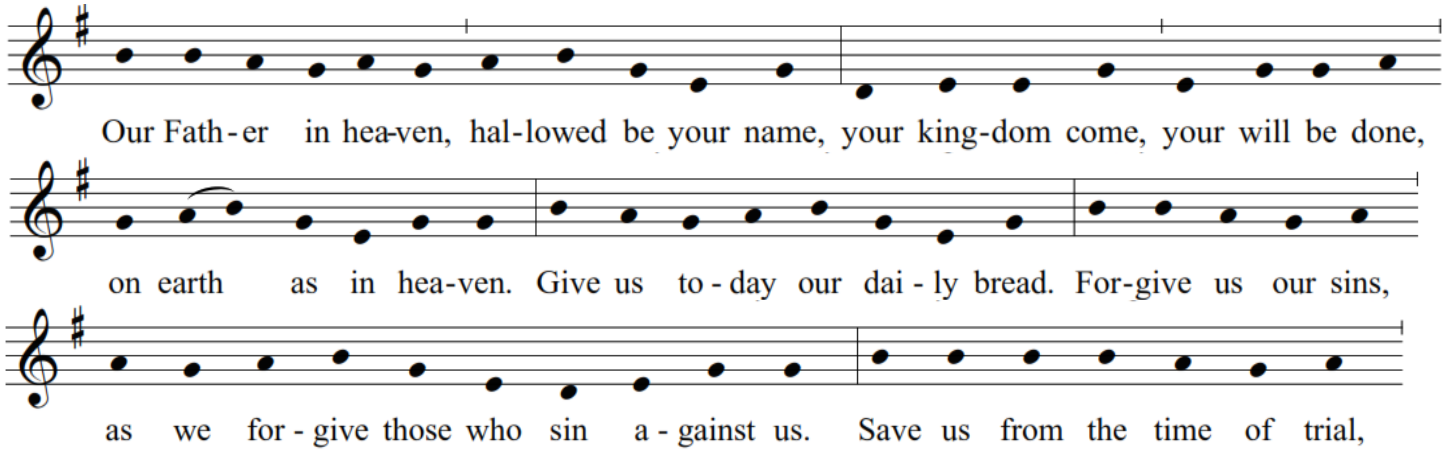

Help us, who are baptised into the fellowship of Christ's Body to live and work to your praise and glory; may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the Virgin Mary, the apostles and prophets, and of all our siblings living and departed.

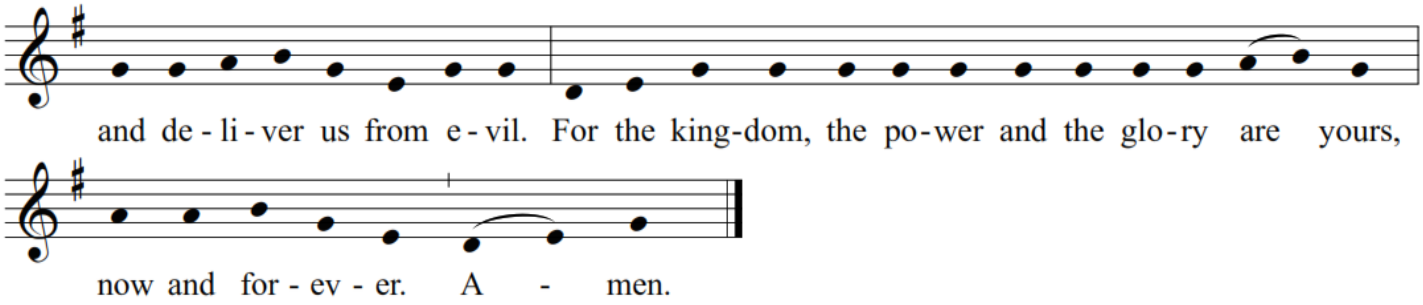

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be to you, Lord of all ages, world without end.

People Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer McNeil Robinson

Presider As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

Silence

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The Communion

Presider The gifts of God for the People of God.

People Thanks be to God.

You are invited to receive communion or a blessing. To receive communion, hold your hands out as you approach the server. To receive a blessing, cross your arms over your chest. You may either sip from the chalice of wine or pause in prayer in front of it; dipping the wafer in the wine is not permitted for health reasons. You may also receive at the Lady Chapel (at the front of the right aisle). Gluten-free wafers are available there upon request.

Communion Music Tune: Take This Moment

Choir Take this moment, sign and space;
take my friends around;
here among us make the place where your love is found.

Take the time to call my name,
take the time to mend who I am and what I've been,
all I've failed to tend.

Take the tiredness of my days,
take my past regret,
letting your forgiveness touch
all I can't forget.

Take the little child in me scared of growing old;
help me here to find my worth
made in God's own mould.

Take my talents, take my skills,
take what's yet to be;
let my life be yours, and yet
let it still be me.

Communion Hymn

Tune: Now in This Banquet

All Now in this banquet, Christ is our bread;
here shall all hungers be fed.
Bread that is broken, wine that is poured,
love is the sign of our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

Please stand.

Presider Let us pray.
God of abundance, with this bread of life and cup of salvation you have united us with Christ, making us one with all your people. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, so that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue forever in the risen life of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People Amen.

Doxology

Presider Glory to God,

All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People Amen.

Birthday and Anniversary Blessing

Announcements

Closing Hymn

All Shout for joy! The Lord has let us feast; heaven's own fare has fed the last and least;
Christ's own peace is shared again on earth;
God the Spirit fills us with new worth.

No more doubting, no more senseless dread;
God's good self has graced our wine and bread;
all the wonder heaven has kept in store
now is ours to keep for evermore.

Celebrate with saints who dine on high,
witnesses that love can never die;
"Hallelujah!"—thus their voices ring:
nothing less in gratitude we bring.

Praise the Maker, praise the Maker's Son, praise the Spirit — Three yet ever One;
praise the God whose friends avow heaven starts here! The kingdom beckons now!

Dismissal

Convener Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Please join us for Coffee Hour in Snell Hall after the service.

Birthday Blessing

Watch over your children, O God, as they begin another year of life. Bless and guide them along the way. Let them know your presence with them in their times of joy and their times of sadness, and may your peace, which passes all understanding, live in their hearts always; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Anniversary Blessing

O God, in the sacred covenant of love we are offered a glimpse of the spiritual unity between Christ and his church. Send your blessing upon this couple as they celebrate their anniversary. Help them to love, honour, and cherish each other with faithfulness, patience, and wisdom, so that their home may always be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Becoming Good Stewards: Talent, Treasure, Time

From the beginning of the human story, God makes people stewards of this wonderful world, asking us to care for it and for each other. As Christians our calling is sharper still, to steward all we have – talent, treasure, time – for God's purposes, knowing it is all God's gift.
In this season, we are reflecting on our commission and making our own plans to be still better stewards in 2027. We are being invited to express our response in an end-of-year pledge.
Please join me in prayer for this season. Yours faithfully, Dean Stephen.
